

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (August 8, 2018)

Grapevine Art Project Member Awards and Activities

KC Hulsman has been selected to exhibit two of her photographic works at this year's Western Trappings on the Llano international exhibition. The works are titled Hay Large and Not Amoosed. The exhibition is inside the Llano County Historical Museum, and runs from October 20 through November 3. There is an artist reception on October 19th at 5:30 p.m.

Klaus Mayer received two First Place ribbons at the Texas State Fair 2018 photography competition for his works titled Texan Sunset and Come Play With Me. During the State Fair, which runs from September 28 until October 21, Mayer's photographs are on display in the Creative Arts Building at Fair Park.

Beverly Richmond will be conducting an oil painting workshop on color theory, design, and composition. An award-winning artist and certified fine art instructor, Beverly has developed the workshop in a small group format. All levels of experience, from beginner to accomplished artist, will benefit from the October 11-13 workshop held in North Richland Hills.

Katie Richarme announced the publication of her latest book, Contemporary Traditions in Native American Pottery, accompanied by an online exhibition of the works. The book is available from Amazon and the exhibition, www.thedancingrabbitgalleryexhibition2018.com, will run from September 1 through November 30.

The Grapevine Art Project announced that they will have additional exhibitions in the Grapevine REC during the month of October and at Grapevine's Atria Senior Living Center during the month of December. These exhibitions are open to the public and free of charge.

The Grapevine Art Project holds monthly meetings on the second Thursday evening of each month, often featuring presentations and demonstrations from highly regarded artists in many diverse media. Visitors are welcome to attend and learn more about the organization, its members, and programs. Artists include painters, photographers, potters, jewelers, sculptors, weavers, and other visual media formats. New members, even those who are not artists, are always welcome.

GAP is a well-established community of more than 85 artists from Grapevine, Texas and surrounding areas, who love to create, enjoy, and learn about art. The Grapevine Art Project is open to artists who work in any media. For more information, visit us at www.grapevineartproject.com

Press Release Contact Information:

Naomi Fron, GAP Vice President – Communications, njbf.creations@gmail.com, 817-909-2809.