

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (July 12, 2018)

Grapevine Art Project Announces Winners of Lancaster Exhibition

During the months of July and August, the Grapevine Art Project is holding a juried exhibition of their members. The Best In Show award went to Cherice Cooper for her oil The Risk Takers. In the Painting category, Chris Brandley won First Place for her oil Slice of Key Lime. Honorable mention was awarded to Beverly Richmond for her oil Days Work Done.

In Photography, First Place went to Looking Back by Bruce Rosenstiel. Honorable mention ribbons were awarded to Grande Mosque by Klaus Mayer and Chiang Mai Umbrellas by Bruce Rosenstiel.

The First Place Ribbon in Pottery went to Sue Jackson for 3 Pitchers. In Sculpture, the First Place Ribbon was awarded to Deb Hart for Armadillo on the Town. In Jewelry, the First Place Ribbon went to Shirley Matteson for Mosaic.

The exhibition is free to the public. There is also a Meet-the-Artist reception on August 24.

From September 13-16, the Grapevine Art Project will hold a juried art show at the Foust Event Center in conjunction with Grapevine's GrapeFest wine festival. The GrapeFest theme this year is A Texas Wine Experience, focusing on elegant wines from Spain and California.

From September 21 through Thanksgiving, the Grapevine Art Project will hold a juried exhibition at Southlake Town Hall in the main lobby area. There will be an artist reception on September 23.

Additional information about locations and hours for these exhibitions can be found on the Grapevine Art Project web site.

The Grapevine Art Project holds monthly meetings on the second Thursday evening of each month, often featuring presentations and demonstrations from highly regarded artists in many diverse media. Visitors are welcome to attend and learn more about the organization, its members, and programs. Artists include painters, photographers, potters, jewelers, sculptors, weavers, and other visual media formats. New members, even those who are not artists, are always welcome.

GAP is a well-established community of more than 70 artists from Grapevine, Texas and surrounding areas, who love to create, enjoy, and learn about art. The Grapevine Art Project is open to artists who work in any media. For more information, visit us at www.grapevineartproject.com

Press Release Contact Information:

Naomi Fron, GAP Vice President – Communications, njbf.creations@gmail.com, 817-909-2809.