Grapevine Art Project Announces Two Scholarship Winners

The Grapevine Art Project is pleased to announce two scholarship winners. The Visual Arts Scholarships are awarded to high school seniors in the Grapevine/Colleyville ISD who are continuing their art careers in college. This is the inaugural year of this scholarship program.

For 2018, the scholarship winners are Ms. Madeline Hampton of Grapevine High School and Mr. Kell Owston of Colleyville Heritage High School. Ms. Hampton will be continuing her studies at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago in the fall, and Mr. Owston will be continuing his studies at the University of Texas at Arlington in the fall. Each student received a one-time scholarship in the amount of $500.

In conjunction with the launch of this scholarship program, the Grapevine Art Project is pleased to announce two Founding Sponsors of the program. These Founding Sponsors are recognized for their tremendous ongoing support of the Grapevine Art Project, facilitating the development of this program. The two Founding Sponsors are the Grapevine Convention and Visitors Bureau and J. E. Foust & Son (Dignity Memorial). In subsequent months, additional sponsors, both corporate and patron, will be announced.

During the summer months, the Grapevine Art Project will hold juried exhibitions at the Lancaster Theater in Grapevine and the Southlake City Hall in Southlake. These exhibitions are free and open to the public. Additional information about locations and hours for these exhibitions can be found on the Grapevine Art Project web site.

The Grapevine Art Project holds monthly meetings on the second Thursday evening of each month, often featuring presentations and demonstrations from highly regarded artists in many diverse media. Visitors are welcome to attend and learn more about the organization, its members, and programs. Artists include painters, photographers, potters, jewelers, sculptors, weavers, and other visual media formats. New members, even those who are not artists, are always welcome.

GAP is a well-established community of more than 70 artists from Grapevine, Texas and surrounding areas, who love to create, enjoy, and learn about art. The Grapevine Art Project is open to artists who work in any media. For more information, visit us at www.grapevineartproject.com
