

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (May 10, 2018)

Grapevine Art Project Opens Active Summer Exhibition Schedule

The Grapevine Art Project will open their juried exhibit and art sale at the Foust Event Center in conjunction with Grapevine's MainStreet Fest on May 18-20. The top 20 artists will be selected. Categories include painting, photography, jewelry, pottery, sculpture, and weavings.

Following this exhibit and show, another juried exhibit will open at the Lancaster Theater during July and August. It is anticipated that a dozen artists will be featured. The exhibit is open to the public and admission is free.

In September and October, there will be an additional juried exhibit in Southlake's Town Hall lobby with the works of about a dozen artists on display. The exhibit is open to the public and admission is free.

Anastasia Smith is pleased to announce a one-artist exhibition at the Lancaster Theater during the month of June. She is showcasing both vibrant oils and striking photography in her exhibition.

K.C. Hulsman will have a pop-up exhibit in the Southlake Town Square Pottery Barn on June 9-10. Her award-winning photography will be on display, and this will also be a great opportunity to meet the artist. A portion of proceeds from this exhibition will be donated to Pottery Barn's official sponsored charity, St. Jude's Children Research Hospital.

Katie McClain Richarme just completed judging the Zuni Pueblo Main Street Festival juried art show in Zuni, New Mexico from May 4-6. She judges numerous Native American art competitions in the Southwest.

The first annual Grapevine Art Project Visual Art Student Scholarship winners for the Grapevine-Colleyville ISD will be announced on May 21.

The Grapevine Art Project holds monthly meetings on the second Thursday evening of each month, often featuring presentations and demonstrations from highly regarded artists in many diverse media. Visitors are welcome to attend and learn more about the organization, its members, and programs. Artists include painters, photographers, potters, jewelers, sculptors, weavers, and other visual media formats. New members, even those who are not artists, are always welcome.

GAP is a well-established community of more than 70 artists from Grapevine, Texas and surrounding areas, who love to create, enjoy, and learn about art. The Grapevine Art Project is open to artists who work in any media. For more information, visit us at www.grapevineartproject.com

Press Release Contact Information:

Naomi Fron, GAP Vice President – Communications, njbf.creations@gmail.com, 817-909-2809.