What’s been happening in the area

Bicycle Theft

Following a rise in bike theft in the area the officers have been conducting not only foot Patrols, but bicycle patrols to be able to cover more in short time. Mean time the team is working on organising multiple bike marking events through Wapping.

Wapping SNT providing reassurance patrols in Waterside Gardens following reports of ASB. The Team aims to provide a visibility presence to prevent and deter further issues from taking place when their about and about.

Wapping Officers Educating Schools

Officers have been visiting schools and educating staff and children around what the police do in Wapping and St Katharines. PC Diskaya is arranging for more of these talks soon!

This particular bicycle was left by potential drug dealers in the Whitechapel area a black B-TWIN bicycle ,if you’ve had a black B-TWIN bicycle stolen, please contact us.

STRANGER SAFETY
 “The best way to teach children about safe strangers is to point out people the child can go to if they’re in trouble, such as police officers and firefighters. Further, show your children places they should go if they need help, like local stores, restaurants and the homes of family friends in your neighborhood,” Marsala said.

Finally..... Ward Priorities stay the same

1. ASB
2. DRUGS
3. TRAFFIC
