I DINNER

SUNDAY,
NOVEMBER 24
6 P.M.

Perspectives

On Wednesday, October 30 from 6 – 8 P.M., we will be hosting our annual Trunk or Treat event here at Memorial. It is a unique opportunity to have our neighbors show up for an event here at our church. Most outreach opportunities require us to go to them. There will be hundreds of our neighbors and families from our community here at Memorial for this event. We need you to plan to be part of it. Whether you are dressed up or not, your presence here makes a difference.

Trunk or Treat events provide a fun, safe, and convenient atmosphere for Halloween trick-or-treating. The party will take place on our west parking lot. We hope you will jump right in and dress up your car or truck in a creative fashion. Here are some ideas I found on the internet this week.

Noah's Ark - Have an adult wear a long white beard to act as Noah and use stuffed animals to represent the animals on the ark. Use cardboard to create the ark structure around the back of your trunk or use plywood to make a larger ark to sit on the ground behind your vehicle.

Pirate's Treasure Chest - Make a weathered map, fly a pirate flag, and use an old wooden box as a treasure chest. Once you've created the set, enhance your scene with a plastic sword, hook, and lots of treasures. Don't forget to complete the look by wearing a pirate hat and a patch as you hand out candy.

Fall Colors - It's also a great choice if you plan on offering festival games from your trunk. Pumpkins, hay, scarecrows and any other fall-related decorations will work in any size trunk. Dress up in overalls as you pass out candy and be sure to top your look with a straw hat.

Candy Utopia - Cut shapes from poster board to represent candy and secure skinny white PVC pipes into large Styrofoam balls. Wrap the balls in cellophane wrapping paper and attach a thin piece of rope to create giant lollipops. Use pastel colors, balloons, and confetti to finish off your own wonderland full of candy.

Safari Animals - Gather your children's stuffed animals, such as giraffes, tigers, and lions. Arrange your trunk as if it's a wild animal safari. If you have an SUV or large trunk, you can use a baby gate to keep the animals safe cozy in their cage.

Spider Web - To make the spider's body, take a black sheet and gather up the ends to form a circle. Stuff it with newspaper and fasten the ends with a rubber band so that you have a large black ball. Glue brightly-colored pipe cleaners or felt to form the eyes and mouth of your spider. Attach the spider body to the top of your car. Complete your spider with legs made from pool noodles spray-painted black or flexible black plastic tubing. Use rope or white string to make a spider web across your trunk and put candy inside for kids to grab.

Bake Shop - Impress trunk-or-treaters by making your own sweet treats—or at least look like you've been baking away all day. Turn your trunk into a bake shop with its own assembly line. Use pedestals to display giant muffins and cupcakes, which can be made from felt. Cover a small ladder with cardboard and attach banner paper over it to make your assembly line. Put on a baker's hat and your apron to pass out candy fresh from your assembly line.

Carnival - You can usually find carnival-related supplies at party stores, including games, decoration, and quirky prizes. Dress up as a clown or an unusual carnival act to give kids the ultimate carnival experience.

Flower Garden - Brighten up your trunk with a flower garden theme. By setting the scene with flowers, bumble bees, and a large sunshine, you'll have the prettiest trunk in the parking lot. Garden gnomes or other garden accessories make cheerful additions. Dress up as a gardener, bumble bee, or ladybug to hand out candy.

Surf Shop - Display your surfboards (or make mini boards out of cardboard) and fasten a sign for your shop to the top of your open trunk. Then you'll need some beach accessories—plastic sand pails, shovels, sunblock, beach balls, umbrellas, and beach attire. Don't forget a portable speaker to play beach music to complete the experience.

Regardless of what you decide to do, your presence here on Wednesday night is important! Looking forward to seeing you ALL on Wednesday Night!
