Permanent Establishment research is often more of a challenge to legal practitioners in the international tax space, than it needs to be.

Understanding and comparing Permanent Establishment rules across different jurisdictions can be difficult.

Practitioners have to juggle multiple sources of information both hardcopy and online.

Current online research tools require you to jump from section to section to find the information you need.

PE+ is designed to revolutionise the way that Permanent Establishment research is conducted.

Easily compare tax legislation from multiple countries side by side.

Consolidating all PE content in one package allows you to have a complete solution at your fingertips.

Simple interface adapts to your research journey, piecing together different content sets.
