

Urgently Hiring Fully-Licensed Psychotherapist in Decatur, GA

Fleurish Psychotherapy, a group private practice serving adults in Decatur, GA, is looking to hire our next awesome clinician to join our team. This is a W-2 position that is currently remote, but will resume in person when it is safe to do so. Our ideal candidate has some private practice experience, is confident and competent with teletherapy, is able to see 23+ clients per week, and has been paneled with insurance previously.

We provide:

- Flexibility in setting your schedule
- Online scheduling (no more phone tag or back and forth emails with prospective clients)
- Management of all insurance billing
- HIPAA-compliant teletherapy, phone system (currently being forwarded to personal cell phones), email, and electronic fax system.
- Comprehensive electronic health record with documentation, electronic forms, client email and text reminders, and task automation.
- Individual, personalized page on the practice website in addition to a practice-sponsored PsychologyToday profile.
- Client referrals
- Assistance setting up and guiding you through marketing to your ideal clients
- Credentialing for contracts with select insurance companies and EAP plans
- Bi-weekly staff meeting and case consultation (Tuesdays from 9-11 am)
- Malpractice Insurance
- 401(k) with matching
- Paid Time Off
- Compensation based on a percentage of income received plus base hourly rate for other office duties
