OUR MISSION:

to be a conduit for the gospel of Jesus Christ as caring friends and strong advocates for those who are suffering from adversity or misfortune.

HOW WE HELP:

We provide spiritual encouragement, one on one assessment, case management and facilitation of training, coaching, education, practical helps and referral to other resources to empower and elevate our friends on the journey to self-sufficiency and stability.

HOURS OF OPERATION

Regular Office Hours:

Call 813-468-0133

for appointment

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday

9:00 am to 1:00 pm

Appointment available on Thursday and Friday outside
regular office hours.

How We Serve Clients:

Staff are available Mon-Wed from 9 am—1 pm and by appointment on other days, to assist with these services.

Practical Helps:

Access to computers, printers for resume printing, faxing, job searches, short course certificate training, and other educational training sites. We give guidance and help clients acquire appropriate work clothing, shoes and grooming supplies to prepare for job interviews.

Community Network: ACCESS POINT assistance with online applications for recipients of Florida State Benefits and other programs such as SNAP (food stamps), Medicaid Programs and related needs.

Community Partnerships:

Referrals to other organizations where necessary and available for safe shelter, housing options, legal assistance, transportation, child care, rent or utilities assistance, food and cleaning supplies.

Emergency Assistance: Limited resources are available for food and nutrition, personal health and hygiene, cleaning supplies, infant needs, other critical needs.

PLI Avenues to Success:

Case Management Advocacy Program:

One on one initial assessment is offered for case management with a view to identify immediate needs and long-term needs.

We then develop an individual action plan toward the desired outcome of self-sufficiency and stability. Clients may walk in or be referred from the local business, church, civic or non-profit community.

Knowledge: Once needs are identified, we develop a plan for appropriate training, coaching and education, job searches and mentoring. We also help in other areas where such as financial literacy, personal budgeting, parenting and life skills .

Spiritual: The Gospel will be communicated to each person or family that comes to our door, with an offer of prayer, encouragement, and friendship. We also offer a weekly connection to a local, evangelical church in their home neighborhood or at 3Streams virtual church online at 3Streams.net.
