per rack, rack in the car, and additional cable lock from the spare wheel center through bike and bike rack. We don't care if it's angled as long as it's secured on the bike rack. Riding the FLEXOR, it's more fun on slightly mountainous terrain and getting the gear selection up is a smart challenge because you want to maintain the same pedaling pace as you go through gear changes without feeling the extreme burn of lactose in the thighs of great muscle effort while accumulating muscle tissue in the legs. Happy bike trials so you can enjoy your FLEXOR. THE FLEXOR.
