Help the man. He is tied up and enclosed in a room. Swipe the rope with your finger and cut. Can he escape the pinch of desperate life? It's up to you! Show more This game is so much fun. Each level is just puzzling enough to be interesting at the same time easy enough to move quickly through the levels. I've had this game for a while now and had a lot of fun with it. The rumble is very nice, and the skins you can unlock are funky and fun and somewhat varied. A few things: on some levels (just like 3 of the 350 I played), the rope cuts through the round wall instead of wrapping around it, which clearly shouldn't happen, and it's just a small mistake. Secondly, there are a lot of ads, but I find it common in games and usually play in airplane mode to avoid it. Last and foremost, START OVER levels at 350. I mean, like, it goes back to the first level of the tutorial, calling itself Level 351. It stinks. I felt like the levels were starting to repeat a bit, but it was necessary to save more people in those levels, so I let it slide. Now they just all go back to the easy top levels and that's how it started all over again. It was fun while it lasted. Rope Rescue is a fun logic-based game that challenges you to take a group of people from one side to the other. This fun adventure is sure to test you with levels that are full of obstacles. Enjoy a bunch of puzzles while you try your best not to lose anyone along the way. The gameplay in Rope Rescue is very simple, although getting through the levels can take a bit of practice. There are two platforms on each level, one with a bunch of people and the other empty. That's where the minimum number of people should go. Your mission at each stage is always the same: take a minimum number of characters from one point to another. To move your travellers, you must extend From point A to point B. Careful though, you can't get into any obstacle or go through a dangerous area. This fun puzzle involves a bunch of harmful objects that you should avoid Plague. Use the blue items to plug in the rope and carry it wherever you want you not to get into trouble. Once you've connected the rope to point B, tap the screen to move the passengers. Tap once and the person will jump down the zip line; Keep your finger on the screen and everyone will start jumping. To pass the level you need to move the required number of people; You may lose people along the way, but make sure you take the exact amount you need. Rope Rescue is a very funny logic game in which you have to take a group of people back and forth. This fun adventure will put you to the test in levels full of obstacles. Enjoy a lot of puzzles to solve without losing anyone along the way. The mechanics of Rope Rescue are very simple, although going through the levels will be a little more difficult. At each level you will see two platforms, one with lots of people and the other, an empty platform where a minimum number of people will have to go. Your mission at every stage will always be the same; transports a minimum number from one point to another. In order to move your travelers you will have to extend the rope from the initial base to the arrival base and you have to do it carefully so as not to crash into any obstacles or pass through a dangerous point. In this fun puzzle you will find many harmful elements that you will have to avoid as much as you can. Use the blue items to plug in the rope and take it where you want you not to get into trouble. Once you have hooked up the rope to the base of the arrival you will have to tap the screen to run your passengers. Tap once at it and the person will rush down the zip line; keep your finger on the screen and everyone starts running. To pass the level, you will have to carry the number specified by the base; You may lose people along the way, but be sure to bring the exact amount you need. If you like puzzles and logic games you can give Rescue Cut a go. This is a game where you have to solve the puzzle by cutting the rope in order to save the character, making sure he doesn't die. Free the person by cutting the rope in each level you will see a person hanging on a rope. You will have to cut it by swiping his finger over him so that he falls, unties himself, and can run through the door. While early levels are pretty easy as you progress other problems will arise. This growing difficulty must be found in situations where there is more than one rope holding the victim and, depending on which one cut in the first place, it can fall on the board spikes and die. You will also encounter moving elements that will make your task even more difficult. Put your logical reasoning skills to the test, fun dozens of levels by downloading this game to your cell phone.
