Based on your choice, we recommend... So when the word came out about them dipping their tippie feet into the pool foundation I was..... excited on the one hand because they make bomb products. But on the other hand, I was a little worried. The basic dilemma is that women of color like me face real. Too many cosmetic brands have been setbacks and have fallen short. And I don't want to see my favorite Colourpop crash and burn in the foundation of a campfire that seems to be spreading across brands. But still, with a sliver of hope in my heart, I was looking forward to launching the fund. Product description: First of all, it is available in a whopping 42 shades - 7 shades in each shade category (fair, light, medium, medium-dark, dark, dark dark). The foundation is described as: Designed for Selfie Age, our built full coverage, natural matte foundation provides a flawless look of skin day in and day out. The oil-free, lightweight formula blends seamlessly and is easy to set up to create the coating you want. Build it or clean it up, it has been designed with innovative soft blur pigments to deliver true color, looking and feeling natural. Just flawless skin look that is a ready-made fi di video light. Can I it up? In addition, it's only $12 USD for a net weight of 0.85 fl oz (25 ml) !!!! How I found my shade: Now it's always very doubtful to buy a foundation Will they get your shade right? What about your shade? Are you going to look like Casper ghost or flawless as Naomi Campbell? Not to mention, the hassle is to just return the product if it doesn't work. Trust and believe the choice of fund online sometimes feel like a high-risk mission. To help with this, Colourpop used 2 systems to help you find your match shade. The first system should fit you based on your foundation match in 6 other popular cosmetic brands: MAC Studio Fix Liquid, Fenty Beauty Pro Filt'r, Estee Lauder Double Wear, Maybelline Fit Me, NARS Natural Radiant Longwear and Urban Decay Naked Skin Weightless. And another system was for you to do a mini quiz that asked you your complexion and shade and then matched you as close as possible. I wanted to try The Colourpop's pretty fresh tinted moisturizer, but wasn't sure how I should color the match. Usually for funds I would try in person before buying, but Ulta is a little far from where I live. Does anyone have any advice on creating an educated guess? FYI I am East Asia and uses Giorgio Armani Designer Forming Cream Shade 5. The search site offered light 5N while Temptalia offered a fair 2w, 3w, light 6w, and 7w. EDIT: In case someone is wondering the same thing, I ordered a light 6w and it's the perfect match!
