The CBSE Board offers many options, but most often chosen for optional subjects with science: (i) Medical - Psychology, Biotechnology, Mathematics, Economics, Home Science, Fine Arts, Physical Education. (ii) Nemo hard - computer science, economics, physical education, engineering, fine art, psychology. Is computer science difficult in class 11? A. Absolutely not, Class 11 Computer Science is definitely lighter than its counterparts as mathematics, physics and chemistry. What should I take PCB (physics, chemistry and mathematics) or PCMB (physics, chemistry, mathematics and biology)? A. It depends entirely on your interest and education. If you want a quick answer, take PCB if you want to study medicine after 12. Take PCM if you want to continue engineering after 12. Take both (PCMB) if you're not sure what you want to learn. If you like to do courses in basic sciences, then you can choose your preferred subjects accordingly. Is math more complicated than biology? A. It depends on your abilities and what you like. They are very different subjects well, so it's not a good idea to compare the two. It's actually best not to compare with objects because they are different (which is why they are differentiated as objects in the first place). The best comparison is usually the topic in the topic itself. But if you compare subjects, the best comparison will be between subjects such as biology and biotechnology, zoology and botany, or mathematics and physics. What is the THEME of the EP in the 11th grade? A. EP stands for EP (Enterprise).
