Attention, agrees! Rio de Janeiro's new civil police competition with permits decrees ready, an event hit with the blocking of the appointment of more than 9,000 posts in the state because of the state's financial situation. Although the decree does not prohibit the holding of a civil police contest by RJ, it is ultimately a stone in the way of an agency that will have to make a relocation in its structure so that it can host a new event (PC RJ competition). Under the leadership of delegate Allan Turnowski, who was head of the institution from 2009 to 2011, a new event is expected to take place. With a heated speech, it ensures that improving the public safety of the state is still with backlog of personnel. On Thursday (08/10), at a press conference, he confirmed the event for 2021. Positions were blocked by decree, but vacancies have already been unlocked. There is a request that in the first half of 2021, leave contests for all previous positions, in fewer vacancies Also vice president of the Foundation for the Support of Teaching and Research of the Civilian Police, Thaianne Barbosa de Moraes Pessoa, only sees the possibility of notices come out in 2020 in a very optimistic perspective. The most concrete scenario is the decree and proof in 2021, he said. The PC RJ competition is authorized by 864 vacancies for fundamental, middle and higher-level positions, including delegate positions. These vacancies must be moved in accordance with the Decree. According to information from the Access to Information Act, in addition to the delegate, seven separate notifications will be provided to the posts of inspector of police, police investigator, coroner, criminal expert, necropsy technician and autopsy assistant. Rewards for these positions range from 4,506.27 to 7,827.33 rubles. For a delegate who will have a more riding publication, the initial reward is R$18,157.73. In contact with the Board of the Secretariat of the Civil Chamber and the Government, it was confirmed that the planning would be reformulated, which could delay the publication of those notifications. After the closure of the posts, defined by Decree No. 47.117/2020, the state government will override plans previously planned for the occupation of tender vacancies, - said in a statement. However, the Civic Chamber did not specify whether the number of posts would be revised as early as 2020 and whether the number of vacancies would be reduced. Recently, the secretary of the traffic police at a press conference in early October confirmed this event for 2021. The notifications are expected to be issued in the first half of next year.
