When I took this job, I was told I would give the maximum hours. In the recent past, I worked 10 to 15 hours, a few weeks, and, now, around 20 hours. I knew, when I assumed the position, that it was part-time. However, I have not been informed that our hours are based on commission. At High School, we need tendency to 150 students, purchasing lunch, to maintain our hours. The fewer students who buy lunch, the fewer hours we receive. We still have to keep the kitchen operational and serve meals while we're short staffed. Director of Nutrition Services in Centralia, MOOpaa! provides an exciting job that puts you in a fast-paced environment. If you want change and work with kids, this job will be a great fit. Asc again! Is a family-oriented company that works with your schedule and understands that you have family needs outside of your work. The hours and days off can't beat. To typically get off the job by 1:30 a.m. and have vacations and summers is a huge perk. With a passion for serving, working flexibility, and loving working with kids you'll get far in this company. It's hard work, but it's rewarding. Cook in Morgan county R2 Versailles MoPoor paid and disrespected by management and other employeeCo workers are very much in a clique type of environment. The manager in the Versailles Mo school often talks about others behind their backs to other co-workers. She picks up certain people. Opaa pays minimum wage and you're lucky to get 25 hours a week. Kitchen staff in Fort Gibson, OKWorst company I worked forThere's not a lot of places I wouldn't recommend trying to get a job, but it's definitely one of them. Unfair treatment, favorites, BACK BREAK jobs and terrible pay. Kitchen manager in Deering, MOThe director for the school I worked for, let the promotion go to her head. She didn't help me to the driver skills I needed help, not to refresh. She wrote me up because I had to take my old dad to the hospital. She even worked for the of the school I was written up that is highly unprofessional in my book. People asked 40 questions about working at Opaa Food Management, Inc..
