In a recent notice, the MPSC announced the revision of MPSC Mains Syllabus 2020. This revision was included in the I-IV General Research Document. No changes were made to Document 1 (Marathi and English - Essay/Translation) and to Document 2 (Marathi and English - Grammar/Understanding). Candidates can check the revised curriculum for the MPSC Rajyasheva exam (Mains) in this article below. The Commission made changes to the w.r.t exam model to negative marking in the objective type of questions. Against the 1/3 negative markings that were previously assigned to every wrong response, the commission has now allowed negative markings of 25% or 1/4 of the total number of stamps, for each incorrect answer. Exams are conducted and monitored by the Maharashtra Public Service Commission (MPSC). In addition to the MPSC exam, the commission also conducts other exams such as subordinate services, Class C services, engineering services, agricultural services, litigation services, etc. MPSC Prelims Syllabus (English): - Download the PDF Here MPSC Exam pattern, as UPSC Civil Services exam, MPSC public services exam is also held in three stages: the candidate must clear one stage to be eligible for the next stage, i.e., if he/she clears the prelims, he/she moves to the basics, the cleaning of which he/she will be called for the final stage (interview). Check the right to the MPSC exam here. Stage 1: MPSC Preliminary Exam This exam consists of two papers, both of which are objective in nature. Take a look at the following table for details of the preliminary exam. Please note that both documents are binding. Document Number No. The questions Total Marks Standard Average Length Nature Paper I 100 200 Degree English and Marathi 2 Hours Objective Paper II 80 200 Mix Degree and School (depending on the topic - see below) English and Marathi 2 Hours Objective candidates should note that there is a negative marking for incorrect answers. For every wrong answer, the candidate will be punished by one-quarters of the characters allocated to this question. For each question, when a candidate has given two options as answers, he/she will attract negative markings of 25 per cent of the total number of marks assigned to the question. Decision-making questions (Paper-II) do not attract negative signs if they are incorrectly answered. They typically include question numbers from 74 to 80 in Document II. The MPSC as a document I and II are considered for merit rating for qualifications for MPSC mains. Sticky: In the IAS exam, the UPSC CSAT document in Prelims is just a qualifying document (33% of qualifying criteria) Preliminary assessments are not for the final list of merits. All questions are asked in English and Marathi, except for those questions that check the candidate's knowledge of English. Stage 2: MpSC Mains Exam As of July 9, 2020, the MPSC Mains General Research Program has been revised. Check the notice below: In the main exam, there are six mandatory documents. Document I and Document II are language documents, while documents 3, 4, 5 and 6 are general research documents. The MPSC does not have optional items, which was introduced in 2012. In MPSC Mains, there is a negative marking in the objective question documents.
