Cars: Fast as Lightning is a great racing project based on the plot of the famous cartoon about the car called Lightning Macqueen, so this application is a good continuation of car adventures. And users get the opportunity to influence how they ride. In addition, players will be able to enjoy the picturesque locations available in the game, and choose a car from the already mentioned cartoon for personalization and care. As well as great graphics, interesting missions and other impressive features will make this application an excellent time-killer with a high-quality technical side. O Cars: Fast as Lightning um Jogo de corridas muito simple, mas divertido. Os Os Excellent graphics, along with its brilliant use of car licenses and other details such as the ability to collect stickers, makes it ideal for both children and adults. Cars: Fast as Lightning is a fun game for the whole family. Starring Lightning McQueen with its powerful pistons, this slot-style racing game is fantastic, albeit distracting the player a bit with actions aimed at building the city. Race in Cars: Fast as lightning is great fun. Competitors slot car mechanics, making their engines snoring all over the city. You will fight for your space on a side-by-side track with other characters from this Hit Studio Disney pixar. Once you win the race in cars: fast as lightning, you can unlock new characters and paths. These tracks can be customized with all kinds of elements such as bridges, tunnels and even roundabouts. Each of these add-ons makes the player more and more fun and can perform tricks to earn more points. There are many challenges to stay focused and complete tasks that really matter in the game. As the player progresses, it will be necessary to get the car ready and be fast enough to win the race. Typically, this will require coins (which can be won with races). But the big news in cars: Fast as lightning builds the city. Just like other games like The Simpsons: Tapped Out, Family Guy: In Search of Things or Ice Age: Village, Cars: Fast as Lightning invites you to rebuild a city (in this case Radiator Springs) that makes buildings and pit stops for various characters. Either way, building a city makes the player feel out of context. It's as if the Gameloft developer saw that this format is popular and tried to incorporate it anyway into this type of game. But it causes unnecessary distraction all the way. Of course, you don't have to spend all your time building the city, but if you don't, it will be difficult to continue racing and pass the stage. Another thing that breaks the pace in cars: Fast as Lightning is a power system that has gained bad fame in games like Real Racing 3 or Angry Birds Go!, since it limits the number of times you can race. You can gain energy (in this case, oil cans) after performing tasks in the city, but we insist that it disrupts the pace of the game. There's multiplayer mode in cars: Fast as lightning. That is, you can invite your friends to run on your roads, which is quite fun. Children's gameA you expect from a game based on the film, so popular among the youngest, Cars: Fast as Lightning is quite suitable for children. All The tutorial comments on the characters in addition to the writing written on the screen, which means that even the smallest can play without the need for help from adults. Races are based on game mechanics in which the player presses a button or stops doing so to speed up or slow down. If you don't slow down your car, you'll hit the barriers and lose ground. Putting tricks into practice in cars: Fast as lightning is as simple as singing your finger on the designated button for a given direction and entering an obstacle (a small bridge, for example). This seems too simple and the player would feel more satisfied if there were more strategies. Car Entertainment Cars: Fast as Lightning deserves a lot of credit. The game really makes the player feel in Radiator Springs. In addition to looking real, we see typical great phrases from the characters we love. And the interaction between them gives the feeling of actually watching a movie. The game also features super-talented actor Owen Wilson, who lends his voice to Lightning star McQueen. Kids will love cars: Fast as lightning as it manages to capture the magic of the movie with a fun, easy-to-handle car race. Unfortunately, the race has many stop and restart points, which ultimately gives the feeling that the game takes a few hours to get to the end. Home 'Games'Racing'Cars: Fast as Lightning Cars: Fast as Lightning - in an arcade game application that was developed based on the famous cartoon. Gameloft has developed this racing game, so the graphics are amazing along with the cool modern gameplay. Playing this arcade, the user will have to click and swipe at this point in time. Despite this, the game is still interesting and wonderful. In addition to racing, the game app gives the user the opportunity to customize a race car with different parts. Also, you start the game with a single car, but then you can unlock up to 20 extra cars from the car universe. Universe. cars as fast as lightning apk download. cars as fast as lightning apk mod
