Review Camino Real Middle School from staff reports. LAS Cruces Sun-News Las CruCES-Las Cruces Public School has filed a criminal report with Las Cruces police after an incident Tuesday where a hacker gained access to a school-sponsored zoom meeting, displaying disturbing materials and racial slurs. The zoom meeting was organized by Camino Real Middle School on behalf of the Parent Teacher Student Organization. School officials say the meeting began about 20 minutes after an uninvited attendee shared his screen, which displayed profane language and explicit content. The host immediately stopped the meeting and tried to relaunch it, but the hacker gained re-access, school officials said. A news release from the district did not detail the explicit content. The LCPS administration is investigating the incident it was an isolated incident that reiterates the importance of following all the security measures outlined by the district, lcps Superintendent Karen Trujillo said. As we continue planning for a thorough online start to the school year, our focus should be on protecting students and staff from any kind of criminal behavior, including online threats. Nothing will come before the safety of our students. MORE: LCPS cites concerns school board members will begin the LCS school year online after LCSS district officials circulated a refresher to all employees on safety measures required for all district employees. A copy of that document is posted on www.lcps.net. 'Zoombombing', as it is now called, is illegal and punishable by law. Anyone with information about the suspect responsible for Tuesday's attack is asked to call Las Cruces Doña Ana County Crime Stoppers, 1-800-222-TIPS (8477). The information leading to the arrest is eligible for a cash reward and you will remain anonymous. Tips can also be relayed through the Crime Stoppers app found in the Apple App Store or Google Play under 'P3 Tips', or by clicking on a tip submitted on www.crimestopperslc.info.
