Pennsylvania Child Abuse Free Relief History - Volunteer $13 - Employees, Foster/Adopted Children Notes: Child abuse relief fees for volunteers will continue to be sidelined one time every 57 months. Release of Pennsylvania Children's Abuse History can be submitted and paid online via self-service portal Child Welfare Information Solution (CWIS). Submitting an application online allows individual applicants to accept their decision through an automated system that will notify them as soon as their results are processed. Applicants can view and print their results online. The self-service portal also provides organizations the ability to create business accounts to pre-paid for child abuse relief and have online access to decisions. Organizations that wish to set up a business account must first sign up for a Business Partner User account using the Organizational Account Access link on the Child Welfare Portal. Organizational accounts will allow businesses and organizations to purchase child abuse history payment codes and distribute those codes to applicants. When the applicant uses the code provided to them by the organization, the organization will have access to the results of the applicant's child abuse history once the decision is processed. ChildLine and RegistryPennsylvania Human Services Department Human Services Box 8170Harrisburg, PA 17105-8170The instructions on how to complete the Pennsylvania Child History Abuse application Are Now included in the last page of the application and can be printed for easy reference when completing the application. Failure to comply with the instructions attached to the application will result in a major delay in processing the results.
