© 1996-2015, Amazon.com, Inc. o Afhadaus In this depth tutorial it explains how 15 steps to attract a beautiful mobile phones girl. Especially it looks at drawing the face of such a character from the front point of view. Step-by-step states the beautiful mobile phones girl step-on drawing a beautiful female anime character center of this lesson. These are often such characters in Hollywood and Minga beautiful girl in school and may not be necessary. However drawing a mobile phones girl is actually a bit of a challenge to see beautiful because most of them are prepared to be pretty enough by default. This tutorial provides guide about how to attract and position head and face features for a beautiful girl character arkaítipi. Please note that if you have seen other similar lessons on Amamyotolana here, there may be some overlap or similar information. However, this particular character has a slightly different proportion so read carefully. Also note that the proportions in this lesson can help get the pretty girl look, this is just an example and there are many ways to attract such a character. Aggregate lessons can apply to art in general with tips on getting a particularly mobile phones/Minga style look that mix good drawing methods. Step 1-Center To Guideline Scare & Head Top Drawing Star by Drawing a Vertical Line Through The Middle Of Your Drawing Area Above Beautiful Mobile Phones Girl. In this case it will be long enough to adjust head height, neck, and upper most of the shoulder. The objective of this line is to work as a guide to ensure that both the sides of the head/neck/shoulder have a relatively wide width. Later it can also help with spacing and positioning facial features. This line will represent the top of the top head that scares a circle. Step 2-head beautiful mobile phones draw down the girl circle from the bottom half of the circle singly down into two lines and toward the angle line. It should then move into curved lines and then go to join the chin curve eventually at an even faster angle. You can see the break in the example above. Step 3-neck/shoulder beautiful mobile phones make the girl neck neck drawing head and neck fairly thin in connection with long enough. It should eventually transfer to the shoulder muscles which should then move into the shoulder. A thin and long neck will help emphasize a beautiful character. As this lesson mainly focuses on the face we will not go too much detail on drawing them. For more information on drawing anime necks, see how to point mobile phones neck & shoulder step 4-eyes vertically beautiful mobile phones to position girl eyes Drawing you can horizontally split the head into two as shown with example For the beautiful girl character you can then put the eyes under this half point. Will add to the big preamouring cuteness. Step 5-horizontally the eye space will attract their basic & beautiful mobile phones to make girl eyes drawing horizontally you can fit into another eye that would want to leave them about enough room between them. Actually drawing eyes when making them quite tight with the relatively hetifer set of the top muharram. At this stage you can only out the basic shape of the eyes without drawing small details such as mahram. The goal is to first place all facial features in the right way. This role will help give a certain personality. To see the various types of mobile phones/minga's clicks: How to make the step step of the maharram of mobile phones by step 7-position & nose beautiful mobile phones girl nose drawing will be slightly between the middle of the head and the halfway point between the horizontal line for the bottom of the chin. The nose sits in shape with a little bit of a little ol. Step 8-position & mouth beautiful mobile phones will be about half between the girl's mouth space where she lip down (not actually ready) the lower part of the nose and the bottom of the chin. Make the mouth very small with a very slight down-to-bottom worker. It is very important that a much more dyed of a worker or the character can express a unhappy look. Step 9-position & ears beautiful mobile phones girl ears drawing ears position with their tops down a little below the top of the eyes and a little below their lower nose. For this particular role, the ears are recommended for a little bit smaller and slightly lower down on the anamivotelana for other character types. For example, see drawing ears for more information to determine other locations: in this case mobile phones and Minga canes will be covered by hair if they don't need more and more to drawing their internal details. Step 10-drawing hair you can move to draw after keeping all of the facial features to draw beautiful mobile phones around the girl's side. Emphasising that the character is beautiful (self-care) we will give her a fair clean hair style. When drawing hair you can think of it being divided into sides, front and back/top parts. Examples of other hair shellies along with this for more detailed explanation How to attract mobile phones and minga hair – starting by the side of the women's hair sides. In this case it will be two long enough clips that start from the top of the head and end up with a little pair under the shoulder. Make it a little bit shaved as they hug the head/face and make them even slightly wider towards the bottom. Step 11-ball cute mobile phones draw the front part of the draw in front of the girl hair drawing front and bump down the sides. Step 12-back/hair beautiful mobile phones back of the girl's hair drawing/back behind the top draw/top section also split down the middle. The hair should first stay a little off its top head, then get a little closer to it near the top end of the side of the head. Finally it should curve away from the head towards the middle/bottom of the head. After you finish your hair you can finish the head/and ear parts that cover it by. If you are thinking that you need to be fully dispersioned towards the head and ears and not only starts with hair there are several reasons for it. One is that makes it easy to keep facial features by seeing the exact size of the head (as shown in the previous stage). Another such drawing is that helps to avoid many possible mistakes. For a list of common mistakes when drawing in Hollywood style and generally in drawing: common mistakes when mobile phones & Minga stage 13-finish your hair exposure and keep facial features you can attract small details. In this case they will be: the inner details of the eye hair-sheets mole/beauty mark You can see how to attract eye drawing suo-mail tutorials: women's mobile phones can be used on examples in this tutorial of all eye drawing measures. Step by step drawing beautiful mobile phones girl eyes you can see a basic step by drawing the steps of the eye details above. Also please note that the shade is the red for making it a little easier to just see the final drawing. If you're going to color the eyes then you want to make them a different color. If you do with the eyes you can add a few extra hair-fairies as shown in the first example. Pretty mobile phones girl drawing her face off up finally you can add a little beauty mark/mole just a little bit below the eyes (or other places). This once again girl is some famous model as beautiful that will help emphasize. You can see a slightly larger version of the top face, to make it a little easier. Step 14-Drawing beautiful mobile phones is important to start coloring this character before you color the girl So that might want to leave some white blemishes for highlights in your hair to do so on paper (see next step). If digitally coloring is easy to add to the exposure at the end. You can go with many possible options for choosing the original color. In this case we will give her fairly light blonde hair ye and complimentary color blue eyes. For an explanation see the color that is well known with each other: Mobile Phones & Minga Stage 15 Drawing When Drawing The Initial Guide to Picking Up Color-Shadow & Drawing Some Very Basic Shading For Pretty Mobile Phones Girl Drawing You can add shadows in the most common places. In this case they will be: small shadows around small shadows under the eyeof the eye (cast by Muharram) large shadow chin for one side of the entirely shadowed ear on the neck of one side of the very small shadow nose (cast by the head) The inner part of the hair between the head/neck and the hair on the side is fully shadowed as mentioned earlier you can also add some hair exposure as well as white crooked shaved lines across the hair. As previously suggested you can just leave this area white and then color around it. Alternatively you can use a white correction pen to add it to the top or digital it. As mentioned at the beginning of the lesson, the letters of women's mobile phones are beautiful by default so it can be difficult to attract one which should be beautiful. However, this tutorial can help create such a character using the location of the proportion and facial feature. The larger the preamours add to the cuteness while giving the eyes a bit more adult face than the larger but slightly narrower (than normal in Hollywood). Raised with the curved mouth below, the abru just looks condescended (not necessary negative), gives like a queen or someone of the upper class. At the same time it is still a fairly comfortable and calm and natural looking expression. As it is just a way of attracting a character.
