But what does the WORLD mean on his sweater? In a special chapter of Dragon Ball Super Manga, the series dropped a big hint that it might stand behind the Monster Island where 17 works are called here is Monster Island, so once again it seems a reasonable bet that the WORLD stands for Monster Island Ranger.- Todd Blankenship (@Herms98) July 16, 2018 In a chapter, Android 17 worries about the cell Jr. survivors currently living on this island, but he says they shouldn't be a problem as long as Goten and Trunks wear their ranger gear around their group of trained Cell Juniors. Although this is not confirmed, it's a problem why the manga refers to Android 17 in Dragon Ball Super, Goku learned that he had been training and caring for his family after the Dragon Ball events. Fans were wondering what the big MIR on his chest was standing, but didn't pay too much wit as there was a lot more investment stuff going on for Android 17 were really a ranger overseeing Monster Island it gives a good explanation of how Android 17 got as strong as fast as it did.
