In this French class we will talk about a certain type of sentence: an exclamation point. Let's see what it is made of, how to distinguish it and how not to confuse it. At the end of this grammar lesson, you'll find assessment exercises, printed sheets and videos. What is an exclamation point? The exclamation word is a series of words that express feelings or emotions: for example, anger, surprise, fear, joy, admiration, disappointment ... Examples: I can no longer work! I'm showing my displeasure. This city is beautiful! I admire. This climate is very harsh! I express my surprise. How easy is it to detect? The exclamation point can be easily identified because: It always ends with an exclamation point (Let's write !) It often starts with words like: what, like that, what. In oral, the intonation of the voice grows. Examples: What a sweet girl! How stupid you are! What a beautiful castle! What artists! It's a really unusual relationship! These meetings are endless! Don't confuse an exclamation point with other types of sentences! Beware, the sentence consists of a series of words that ends with a sign ! not necessarily an exclamation point. It needs to be checked that it expresses feelings or emotions. Example: Eat bread! Faster! Without crossing the threshold of this door! These suggestions are not exclamation points. Indeed, they do not express any emotions or feelings. They give an order: it is imperative / judicial sentences. Could it be made up of one word? Yes, an exclamation point can only be invented in one word. Example: Awesome! (Note the punctuation at the end of this sentence.) Assessment exercise indicates each sentence if it is exclamation point. 1)- your money. 2) - Keep your money! 3) - Park I car ... 4) - He cuts his steak with a knife. 5) - How did he cut his steak? 6) - What a beautiful flower! 7) - What is this flower? 8) - Eat soup! 9) - What a horror! 10) - I'm glad to finally see you again! Adjusted for exercise evaluation: 1)- No. (No!) 2) - Yes. (Definitely shows irritation.) 3) - No. (It's not even a suggestion.) 4) - No. (No ! at the end.) 5) - No. (Ask a question.) 6) - Yes. (Shows a miracle.) 7) - No. (It's an order.) 8) - No. (Doesn't express feelings, but gives the order.) 9) - Yes. (Shows disgust.) 10) - Yes. (Shows satisfaction or happiness.)
