On the side, her number one son becomes the first West ever to graduate from a university and Cheryl couldn't be more proud. There's no way she's going to miss a graduation ceremony, no matter what happens. On the other hand, her husband, Wolf, is sentenced on various burglary charges. But Corky, the family's attorney, assured them that he would be the year - most. It's not great, but the family has gone through worse in the past. It's a professional hazard. Then there's a familiar knock on the door and the nemesis's family, Detective Sergeant Wayne Judd, leads his police team on another search of West's property. And then Cheryl's day starts to get worse. Looking: Robin Malcolm as Cheryl West, Grant Bowler as Wolfgang West, Anthony Starr as Van West, Anthony Starr as Jethro West, Siobhan Marshall as Pascal West, Antonia Prebble as Loretta West, Frank Whitten as Grandpa West with: Kirk Torrance as Wayne Judd, Brian Sergeant as Eric, Tammy Davis as Michelle as Tracy Hong, Trevor Cy Louis as Mr. Hong, Roy Ward as John Styeron, Charles Unwin as Mr. Small, Jason Hoyt as Corky, James Ashcroft as VINS Guy, Conno Laverick as 10-year-old Jethro, Jake Lindesay as Wang/Jethro Bodies Double Episode 1.02 19, 2005 Aus: December 18, 2006 Author Rachel Lang Director Vanessa Alexander Cheryl's plan to march her family down a straight and narrow road did not come out on a good start. There is a rebellion in the air. Wang doesn't like working for the Hong family, paying off his debt like their pool boy and driver. Pascal's modeling career, meanwhile, is in serious jeopardy. She works at the Snapper Shack fish and chip shop, where fat plays havoc with her complexion. Worse, there's no way she'll ever get $1,500 to pay Renee, her photographer, to finish her portfolio. The worst part is that the money ran out. Cheryl's work as a cash-sed chicken may satisfy her desire for honesty, but it sure as hell doesn't pay the bills. There's only so much mince the family can eat by candlelight because the power has been cut off before the mores start to wear out. C: Kirk Torrance as Wayne Judd, Brian Sergeant as Eric, Tammy Davis as Manter, Rohan Glynn as Glen Hickey, Dane Dawson as Kurt, Michelle Ang as Tracy Hong, Trevor Sai Louis as Mr. Hong, Josephine Davison as Susie Hong, Jeff Kingsford-Brown as Noel Greenwood Ana Tuigamala Tony Potter as Braelee, Phil Brown as Renee, Michael Cooney as Oscar Fusilama, Erin Wilson as Robbie, Jake Lindesay as Wang/Jethro Body Double Episode 1.03 NH: July 26, 2005 Aus: January 01, 2007 Author Rachel Lang, Maxine Fleming Director Mark Beasley West Girls Wolf before they are sent on a little night. They're going to a party at Markham's house. Allen and Lexi are two of Cheryl and Wolfe's oldest friends - old enough for Wolfe to know exactly what womanising bastard Allen is. Having been with Wolf for his opposition to her grand plan for the family, she is very happy to let Wolf's imagination do its worst. With him stuck there, and Allen is all on his own while Lexi heads to Paris. Who knows what might happen? Meanwhile, as a Maori clerk of law in Trapman-Stieron, Jethro is working on a potential gold mine case - misappropriated land, contract money - big fees for the company and big ups for Jethro if he can find incriminating evidence. Introduce Hugh, Jethro's law clerk to the rival, on stage. Hugh is the son of a judge himself, and he wants to work Jethro in. S: Kirk Torrance as Wayne Judd, Brian Sergeant as Eric, Tammy Davis as Manter, Katrina Brown as Noel, Chris Hobbs as Allen, Beth Kayes as Lexi, Erroll as Hugh, Teulia Blakely as Savannah, Roy Ward as John Stionerson, Ana Tuigamala as Mrs. T, Tony Potter as Braelee, Ben Marshall as Paul, Eruera Sutherland as Gang Member, Jake Lindesay as Van/ Jethro Bodies Double Episode 1.04 NZ: August 02, 2005 Aus: January 02, 2007 Author: He hides in the bin. Bad move as the garbage truck comes along, picks up the trash can and throws it in the back. Thus ends short, tragic as Billy (Baby) Grady West. He may have been Eric's son, but West was his true family -- to the extent that he added them to his own. It's funeral day and the funeral should be in the West House. Cheryl comforts Eric; Wang is overwhelmed with guilt; Pascal turns her grief into Billy's death on her younger sister, accusing Loretta of being alarmed, depressed, and most likely the oldest virgin in West Auckland; Jethro worries about his mother and the imminent return of Wolf. C: Brian Cergent- Eric, Tammy Davis as Manter, Chris Hobbs as Allen, Ben Mitchell as Paul, Danielle Mainwaring as Billy, Aidy Walker as Drasca, Jason Hoyt as Corky, Rose Turnbull as Rochelle, Karan Purohit as Dairy Kid, Jake Lindesay as Van/Jethro Bodies Double Episode 1.05 NH: August 09, 2005 Aus: January 09, 2007 Author James Griffin Directed by Mark Beasley Career in Junk Mail Delivery, finally breaking her spirit. Even her descendants worry about her so much, spurred by Jethro's example of how to be a loving son, each of them determined to do their bit to help. Pascal is still a waitress at the Champagne Club, which does not help in her quest to be the next Rachel Hunter. Robbie, the club's owner, suggests that if Pascal wants to be seen, she should consider becoming a stripper. It's not a career path Pascal has ever considered before, but the way Robbie explains it, there are a bunch of advantages. Loretta's take on mom's help comes in the form of trying to generate revenue by selling bootleg pre-release DVDs, bought from Hong's via Video Hut. Meanwhile, Wolf sets Wang up with a dodgy job, working with Sparky, a speed-freak psycho-nutter electrician/arsenist. C: Kirk Torrance starring Wayne Judd, Tammy Davis starring Manter, Michelle Ang starring Tracy Hong, Dane Dawson starring Kurt, John Lee as Sparky, Josephine Davison as Susie Hong, Ginamori Houghton, as Emma, Andrew Foster as Pete, Trevor Cy Louis as Mr. Hong, Erin Wilson as Robbie, Rohan Glynn as Glen Hickey, Jake Lindesay as Wang/Jethro Body Double Episode 1.06 NK: August 16, 2005 Author James Griffin Directed by Mark Beasley However, when a fan turns out to be Constable Hickey, and his obsession turns to stalking, Pascal turns to Wang to make sense of The Game. Loretta has huge problems with the idea that Grandpa shared more than just a cell when he was locked up. His assurance that this happens all the time when you lock people together, oddly enough, is not very reassuring. Wang struggles with conflicting emotions about Susie Hong's pregnancy. C: Jane Collins as Margaret, Rohan Glynn as Glen Hickey, Michelle Ang as Tracy Hong, Tammy Davis as Manter, Kirk Torrance as Wayne Judd, Dane Dawson as Kurt, Josephine Davison as Susie Hong, Trevor Sai Louis as Mr. Hong, Geinamori Houghton as Emma, Erin Wilson as Robbie, Katrina Brown as Caroline, Briar Duggan as a yoga teacher Director Jonathan Brough stuns the family by announcing that he and Margaret are moving to Tauranga to live together - but not before one last job. Jethro and Caroline decide to call the bluff Loretta and impersonate a couple. When blackmail fails, Loretta faces the horror of returning to school. Jethro is accepted as a lawyer, his last obstacle in becoming a full-fledged lawyer. C: Kirk Torrance as Wayne Judd, Katrina Brown as Caroline, Jane Collins as Margaret, Rohan Glynn as Glen Hickey, Michelle Ang as Tracy Hong, Dane Dawson as Kurt, Roy Ward as John Stionerson, Charles Unwin as Mr. Small, Sheria Sammens as Judge, Anton Tennett as Kid, Glen Pickering as Van/Jethro Body Double Episode 1.08 NK: August 30, 2005 Author: Her new job at an insurance company seems to be just what she needs until she discovers that her colleagues are working. Tempted by the offer to join, Cheryl decides that she does not want to take part in the scheme, after which she is quickly transferred. Pascalle discovers the ugly side of the modelling industry when a cattle call to save the animals from the cruelty of charity reunites her with Chantelle Lazenby - a girl Pascal has not seen since Irish dancing when Chantelle was very, very fat. Now she is gorgeous and elfin and the competition stood in the way of Pascal's fate. Grandpa washed his broken heart through poker. The game continues for days as Grandpa systematically fluids Manter, Eric and Rochelle of their money. C: Brian Sergeant as Eric, Tammy Davis as Manter, Sharon Tyrrell as Penny, Beth Allen as Chantelle, David Fan as Falani, Tanya Anderson as Katherine, Rose Turnbull as Rochelle, Nicole Whippy as Casey, Kirk Torrance as Wayan Judd, Rohan Glyn as Glen Hicky Glen Pickering as Van/Jethro Body Double Episode 1.09 NH: September 06, 2005 Author Maxine Fleming Director Michael Bennett When Wang leaves his job as a lap dog for Susie and Tracy Hong, Mr. Hong sets it up as manager of lucky dollar store, where he inadvertently begins a race of war between Hon and Doslic families when he discovers a growing feud. Mrs. Doslick cancels her offer to host one of Cheryl's parties in her underwear. Pascal's posters are ruined. Loretta spits in the street. Eventually Mrs Doslick and Cheryl ended up in a bag brawl in a supermarket car park. Jethro realizes that he lacks the ability to speak sorry when Tracy Hong demands an apology for Jethro sleeping with her, pretending to be Wang. C: Michael Ang starring Tracy Hong, Aidy Walker starring Drasca, Tammy Davis starring Manter, Trevor Cy Louis starring Mr. Hong, Vadim Ledogorov starring Mr. Dee, Ian Fisher starring Mrs. Dee, Dane Dawson as Kurt, Erroll Shand Shand Hugh, Tayla Blakely as Savannah, Darcy-Ray Flavell-Hudson as Damien, Brian Sergeant as Eric, Kirk Torrance as Wayne Judd, Rohan Glynn as Glen Hickey, Josephine Davison as Suzie Hong, Rose Turnbull as Rochelle, Nicole Whippy as Casey, Glen Pickening as Van/Jethro Body Double Episode 1.10 NK: September 13, 2005 Author James Griffin Director Michael Bennett bags Pascal himself as a real TV star and Hoochie Mama. Finance for Cheryl's underwear business ends up in the wrong pockets when Casey gives all her money to her boyfriend, who invests it in a drug deal. C: Peter Mueller as Grant Wilkes, Rose Turnbull as Rochelle, Kirk Torrance as Wayne Judd, Dane Dawson as Kurt, Nicole Whippy as Casey, Aidy Walker as Draskey, Rohan Glynn as Glen Hickey, Adam Gardiner as Murray, Morgan Rees Fairhead as Xena Kate-Louise Elliott as Monica, Sally Stockwell as Sandy, Katrina Brown as Caroline, Brian Sergeant as Eric, Tammy Davis as Manter, Angela Shirley as journalist, Glen Pickering as Van/Jethro Body Double Episode 1.11 NH: September 20, 2005 Author James Griffin He engages Manter in a carefully orchestrated plan to rob the creditors next door. Needless to say, the work is not going as planned. The finger is pointed at Cheryl as rumors begin to circulate that she was the one who reported on Luther Wallace. Pascal learns a lesson in love and publicity when her romance with Grant reaches its end. C: Tammy Davis as Manter, Aidy Walker as Draskey, Brian Sergeant as Eric, Kirk Torrance as Wayne Judd, Katrina Brown as Caroline, Peter Mueller as Grant Wilkes, Rose Turnbull as Rochelle, Nicole Whippy as Casey, Sally Stockwell as Sandy, Rohan Glynn as Glen Hickey, Morgan Reese Fairhead as Xena, Glen Pickerin as Van/Jethro Body Double Episode 1.12 NW: September 27, 2005 Author Maxine Fleming, James Griffin Director Jonathan Bro Wang managed to snatch several thousand takes from Tong's work from The Vice-like grip of Drasca to pay Cork to go forward with the appeal of the Wolf - but Cheryl has no idea. For her, awaiting appeal raises the specter of a wolf coming out of jail - just as she embarked on a case with DS Judd. In prison, to make himself look like an exemplary prisoner (and thus help his appeal), Wolf does a written course that is being taken by Caroline Darling, Jethro's girlfriend. Not that Wolf actually does any of the writing, because Loretta does it for him, but the teacher is still very happy with his work. W:ith: Aidy Walker starring Drasca, Kirk Torrance starring Wayne Judd, Brian Sergeant starring Eric, Tammy Davis starring Manter, Katrina Brown starring Caroline, Jason Hoyt starring Corky, Rose as Rochelle, Nicole Whippy starring Casey, Michelle Ang Ang Tracy Hong, Dane Dawson as Kurt, Rohan Glynn as Glen Hickey, Glen Pickering as Van/Jethro Body Double Episode 1.13 NH: October 04, 2005 Author Rachel Lang, James Griffin Director Mark Beasley Wang and Drasca, brought the shame of the Doslic clan, kicked out of the Doslic family home. They end up hiding in a run-down apartment, running away from the law and avoiding anyone associated with them. Despite this, Draska is still determined to continue the wedding. Attracting Pascal as her trusted bridesmaid, she moves to her prize. Cheryl, meanwhile, has reached the bottom. Her dreams for her family are in tatters and she doubts the way the honesty she frogs have marched them down. Worse, Wolf and Jethro's plans to release Wolf (and nail Judd for his creative use of evidence) continue at pace. Is the wolf coming out? Will Wang go inside? Will Drasca get his man? Does Cheryl have too many people? C: Aidy Walker as Drasca, Kirk Torrance as Wayne Judd, Brian Cergent as Eric, Tammy Davis as Manter, Dane Dawson as Kurt, Rose Turnbull as Rochelle, Nicole Whippy as Casey, Rohan Glynn as Glen Hickey, Glen Pickering as Van/Jethro Body Double Series 2 2
