Here you will find useful information about the entire franchise Shadez! The franchise was developed by Sean Cooper, powered by MochiGames and promoted by Crazy Monkey Games inspired by the success of the original game. Here's a quick navigation below! Have fun and enjoy the wiki! Add an image to this gallery About Shadez is a two-dimensional real-time strategy-side scroller. It is recommended for people who love genres such as war and strategy. It allows you to fully command every infantry, vehicle and even bombardment for use against the enemy. Different strategies can be used! Use superior tactics and fight for the freedom of your faction! Sequels Links: Shadez: The Black Operations - Shadez II: Battle For Earth - Shadez III: Moon Miners - There are 3 spin-off versions available for mobile devices, but it has not been confirmed that they are owned by Sean Cooper. Featured article Special Forces are elite infantry trained by a group of people and used to eliminate enemy infantry. Special Forces performs throughout the series. In Shadez, it is armed with an M-16, while in Shadez 2 and 3 it is armed with MP-5. Such a policeman is able to plant C-4s in buildings with devastating potential to surround disturbed buildings. The infantry is also the only infantry in game one. My Kong Trending with Friends Activity Feed g Register or sign in to start receiving activity updates around Kongregate! Forums Dev Shadez 3: The Moon Miners is the latest in an epic and challenging war strategy shadez franchise for teenagers that really sorts amateurs from professionals. You've already fought the earth's mechanical alien invaders! Shadez 3: Lunar miners are set in the moon's rugged landscape where you play in the role of commander, sent to protect the friendly Moon mining colony that has become attack by hostile aliens. You have to fight an attacking enemy and fight your way through several hard battlefields using a variety of well-deployed troops, powerful artillery, stealth tactics, mighty explosives and more. All this action, fast-paced, mouse-clicking battle extravaganza requires good decision-making skills combined with the ability to adapt to high pressure situations. Your extraterrestrial enemies are diverse, and there are many different tasks to try - so you need a lot of strings on the bow of your military tactician. Do you have the brains and the stamina to lead your power to an important victory over evil? Ok Commander – time leads from the front. Gaming: There are two different game modes to choose from : training mode and campaign mode. We recommend that you try at least a few levels of training mode to get used to the different controls you need to manage if you want to enjoy success in campaign mode. On the Level Select screen, select your game mode. Training levels are indicated in the round blue icon, while campaign levels are indicated by a green hexagonal icon. When you get to the main battle display, you have to build your army's infrastructure. Click the mouse or touchpad on your computer by clicking on the building icons at the bottom of the game screen to build important buildings one by one. The buildings include a military barracks to produce troops, a stallion refinery to raise funds, a power plant to generate electricity and a general staff as a base. At a later level, these buildings are already in place, and you can update their power and productivity as you progress through each one. Once this infrastructure is established, you can produce and send troops to attack the enemy. Click on the barracks and click on the troop icons to spawn marines carrying rocket launchers, weapons and other weapons. Each set pays a certain amount of gold to create. If your refinery is up and running, mining trucks automatically replenish your virtual income every few seconds. You can scroll sideways with the arrow keys on your computer keyboard (Enemy Base is located to the right of the landscape). To move sets, click and drag the mouse over them to highlight the ones you want to control. Then click on the area of the game screen where you want them to march. Your goal is to eliminate enemy buildings and troops from the opposite end of the battlefield. After highlighting your troops, click on the target you want (this can be a specific enemy droid or one of the most important enemy buildings). Your mission will be complete once all enemy forces have been destroyed. Good time! Note: When the game is first downloaded, you may have to wait 1-2 minutes for the game to load (and sees the black screen until it does so). When the game loads, a small Adobe Flash Player Settings window appears on top of the game screen, asking for your permission to save the cookies needed to play. Click Allow to continue. If this Flash-based game no longer works in the IE11 or Chrome browser on your PC/MAC, try playing Firefox when Adobe Flash Player is installed. Play Shadez 3 The Moon Miners I like games Shadez 1 and 2, but this disappointed me, I expected news of the campaign, new military vehicles and among others, so it's basically Shadez 2 copies of the unique differences that the appearance of some vehicles has been changed and other things, Shadez is 2.1, not Shadez 3. Really not good, hopefully the launch of Shadez 4, and you'll improve at all, to continue shadez's spirit! Sorry if the translation wasn't good, I live in Brazil and used a translator of 15 hlásů .81% Shadez 3: The Moon Miners je třetí pokračování skvělé strategické hry, ve které se ocitnete v roli vojenského generála a zároveň i budovatele. Vaším cílem bude postavit prosperující město schopné produkovat dostatek bojových jednotek, za pomoci kterých musíte vašeho nepřitele zničit.
