Initially, this app was fantastic, however, after trying to pass the domain name using Jessica my URL stopped working. With the soft launch of my product coming time is important even after sending a few chat requests with a customer service with a zero response and Jessica no longer responds I had to write this review. Hopefully they can fix their problem and I can change this review. R0CK3R4LIF3 is new to this but I find the app pretty easy to use so far. The app is pretty much self-evident once you get your hands dirty and get there to go through. Kudos to developers for help making this time trying for me, just a little easier. I appreciate all the thoughts that have been put into this app. Overpriced I saw for free and was excited because it seemed simple enough, but I mean seriously it's funny almost every feature pro exclusive version that basically makes me buy a pro which I can't afford is a shame. I mean seriously? Al can we do, is it text and photos? Free? It's stupid, I wanted to make a site to sell things, but think no. Since I can't even put a button or video or really anything on my site. I don't know if when you delete the app, it gets to clear the sites I made the site and I didn't want the app so I deleted the app. and I wonder if you delete the app, does it get rid of the sites? Thank you and please respond. Frustrated with the flaws of the app this app started big but constantly closes and cuts every time I try to keep my job. I spent 5 hours trying to work with this thing and so far only 1 page is actually saved. The biggest disappointment. Free 14-day trial. No credit card required.
