A guide to the documents required for a standard visitor visa application. Is this page useful? A guide to the documents required for a standard visitor visa application. Is this page useful? By combining technical know-how with human touch, we help ensure a safe and easy journey for both governments and citizens. We work with our government clients who welcome people from all over the world, traveling abroad to share experiences, discover new cultures, work and learn. This guide explains the documents you may need to support your application to visit the UK. All documents should be originals, not photocopies. Submitting these documents does not guarantee that your application will be successful and you should keep this in mind when booking. If you are sending a document that is not in English or Welsh, it must be accompanied by a full translation, which can be independently verified by the Home Office. Each translated document must contain: confirmation from the translator that it is an accurate translation of the original document, the date of translation of the full name of the translator and the signature of the contact details of the translator 1. The documents you must provide are all visitors with a valid travel document (national passport or other document that allows the owner to travel abroad). 2. Other documents that you can provide - all visitors This section contains recommendations on the types of documents you can provide to help us consider your application against immigration rules. previous travel documents/passports that show previous travel. financial documents showing that you have sufficient funds. They should clearly show that you have access to funds such as: bank statements building company proof of earnings, such as a letter from an employer confirming employment data (start date, salary, role, contact company details) where a third party (who is either in the UK or who will be legally in the UK during your visit) provides financial support to you, for example. Business, friend or relative, documents to show that they have sufficient resources to support you in addition to yourself and any family dependents should be provided with proof of legal residence if you are not a citizen of the country in which you are applying or your right to reside is not included in your passport employment or study data, where you stated in your application that you are either employed or in full-time research. This may include: a letter from your employer on a paper headed by a company detailing your role, fees and length of work letter from your education provider, on paper, confirming your enrollment and leave if self-employed; business registration documents confirming the name of the business owner and date date Business started trading business activities - where you come to the UK in order to carry out activities related to your profession/employment outside the UK you must submit documents showing what you will do in the UK, including any letters from inviting organisations. For example: any business activity, such as a letter from an employer outlining the reasons for your visit, who you will meet and details of any payments/expenses for performances and entertainment visitors, whether you work in this area as a professional or amateur, and what and where you will perform under the 18s - we strongly encourage you to provide the following information otherwise it may delay consideration of your application for a birth certificate or legal document (e.g. adoption documents) showing the relationship between you and your parent or guardian, if travel unaccompanied or with someone other than your parent or guardian you must provide: a signed letter from your parents (s) confirming the details of any accompanying you, as well as details of the care and accommodation arranged in the UK for a copy of your parent (s) or legal guardian that includes their signature and passport number, if your parent (s) does not have a passport, then you must provide another official document that bears your signature 3.
