Stability and Speed Development VIP Subscription Unlocked Follow the recommendations of this reviewer's 5 star rating will give you points that you can use on the site. That's why there are so many perfect scores. However, even if you remove it, it is highly appreciated because you can exchange messages for free. Speaking of le0, I want to make the search filter more detailed. And I'm categorically against any way to display ads on text boxes. I would like you to improve above two points. Get points with 5 stars - ★★★★★ I've been using it for 3 years, but I haven't come as a trader or Sakura. It's a feeling that most of them come from foreigners The interesting point is that there is a track function and you can see the profile and picture of the person It's quite interesting It's quite interesting you can communicate normally without paying it depends on the device - ★★★★★ there are more foreigners than Japanese, but first of all, if there are a few people who can speak Japanese if there are daily English skills I think it's fun to have a cross-cultural exchange. For those who want to get to know people from abroad, is it possible to make connections? It is necessary to communicate with each other with caution. Try using it for a while. ... ★★★★★ Privacy - Terms of Use - Advertising - Smees Statements - Guidelines - Opinions and Requests - Help and Requests JASRAC License Number: 9008249113Y38200 Image: Afro Copyright (C) 2020 Yahoo Japan Corporation. Enter the address you want to register and your favorite password. When you receive an email confirmation, registration is complete. If you invite a friend, you will get points. Main use: Meet the square in the meeting area, you can find the person with whom you want to communicate. The person you see is someone next to you. You can narrow down people who show up with different conditions. Touch the red frame on the next screen. You can specify gender, age, etc. The results of the display. Display. You can also look for people in a certain area. Please tap the plane sign from the meeting area. Enter your favorite country or city in a red frame to find someone to communicate in this area. However, points are necessary and there is a time limit. Below, Seoul, San Francisco, etc. are displayed in representative regions from which you can choose from. Buzz Buzz allows you to post your own photos and comments, such as My Pages on Facebook and LINE. You can tell the other person what kind of person you are. Shake Shake, when you shake your smartphone, you can connect with the other side at random from around the world, you can enjoy the chat. Communicate and have fun with people from different countries. If it's a worldwide dating app. When you go to the screen to wink at your partner's chat, there's a thing called a wink. Winks let you know that you are interested in another person. Favorites Also from the chat screen, adding the other side to favorites, you will get a notification when the person updates the noise. Gifts You can use glasses to give gifts to people you like. You can buy glasses. Because the point accumulates a little by a little, browsing the daily login and advertising, I think there is no need to buy it, except when sending a gift. SKOUT is a suitable application that originated in the United States in 2007. It attracted so much attention that it was shown in the news. On this page: Can I meet foreigners at SKOUT? On how to use, danger, reputation and word of mouth will be introduced. Apps from the U.S.! What is SKOUT? SKOUT is an appropriate application from the United States, which began its work in 2007. It became popular in 2014 and is very relevant, for example, is introduced in local news programs. In Japan, it became a hot topic mainly on SNS, and it became used by men and women between the ages of 20 and 30. SKOUT is an app that users increase not only in Japan, but also in other countries. Because it is an appropriate service used by people from abroad, SKOUT is used especially in Japan by people who want to meet foreigners. SKOUT is a location-based app that uses location information to use GPS features to meet people close to you in addition to finding preferences and commonalities. This feature has become a hot topic because it is easy to meet people close to you. The secret to SKOUT's popularity lies in its simplicity of being able to find meetings on the way to school, on the way to work, or while walking and shopping. How to use the popular SKOUT app in the U.S. Here we will introduce how to use SKOUT. SKOUT is the first time in the United States and many foreigners have registered. If you want to meet foreigners, or want to try an app that has become a hot topic in the United States first, please use SKOUT. The four representative features of SKOUT SKOUT have four typical features for meeting people of the opposite sex and foreigners. There are four typical FEATURES of SKOUT: Buzz → feature whispering about its current situation. You can also post photos. Shake → the function of randomly connecting with people all over the world. The function → the other side that is worried about winking. If there is a person you care about, click a wink. The company → message to the person you want to communicate with. He can appeal even more than a wink. Let's see how we actually use SKOUT. (1) Download SKOUT The first thing to do is download SKOUT. SKOUT is an app, so let's download it first. Since it's compatible with both Android and the App Store, please download the app according to your model. (2) Search for a partner by preferences or prevalence After downloading the app, let's look the other way by preferences and general. Imagine meeting someone and looking for a woman who might fit you. In addition, there is also a place where the opposite floor is displayed next to the meeting area in SKOUT, so it's also good to look for a favorite partner there. If you install it, you can also only show people who are in a certain place. If you want to find a foreigner, look in this meeting square. (3) Send a wink to your favorite partner and turn If you find someone you care about, send a wink to your loved one and appeal. SKOUT has a button called Wink, so send more and more winks to the people you care about. If you don't send a wink, you can't match it, so if you're worried about someone even a little bit, send them a wink right away. (4) When matching, send a wink exchange message, and match success if the other side also returns a wink. Once the match is over, you will be able to exchange messages. Let's be aware of getting to know each other first without getting rattled suddenly. Once the conversation is played to some extent, it is good for sharing contacts. SKOUT is basically free! The various pricing plans also available SKOUT is basically a free app. However, there is also a paid plan for those who want to meet more in SKOUT and those who want to use a lot of features. In a paid plan, you can understand the person who has put the trail, so if you are concerned about which person is interested in you, a paid plan is recommended. Below is the price of the paid SKOUT plan. 1 month plan 1200 yen 3 months plan 3000 yen 12-month plan 8400 yen Can you meet a foreigner using the APPLICATION SKOUT? Finally, you can meet foreigners with SKOUT. SKOUT is an app that originated in the United States, so you can use it to meet foreigners. However, it is difficult to become a foreigner living in Japan. You can meet foreigners using Shake SKOUT and the meeting area search function. However, in the case of SKOUT, you can only meet foreigners who are outside the country. There are no foreigners in Japan, but there are quite a lot of them. For people who want to meet seriously, it's hard to have a long-distance relationship all of a sudden. SKOUT is an app that you expect in the future, SKOUT can communicate with foreigners, but it is quite difficult when it comes to actual meeting in Japan. However, there is a possibility that the number of foreign users living in Japan will increase in the future because there is enough relevance. SKOUT is an appropriate app that can be expected in the future. Even if it's hard to actually meet, you can exchange messages (Friends of Me!). It is also a good idea to use SKOUT to get used to talking to foreigners. Does the SKOUT location function lead to danger? SKOUT has the ability to meet people of the opposite sex using location information, but there is also a perception that it is dangerous. Of course, it is dangerous to use location information. There is a certain amount of risk because it is made public for people who do not know where you are. For example, you can use it at home and define your home. No matter what app you use, it's dangerous to use it at home if you're using location information. If you want to use the location feature, let's use it in a place away from home or downtown. The reviews, reputation and ratings of the people who use SKOUT here, we will present the reviews and reputations of the people who actually used SKOUT. Please refer to word of mouth and the reputation of the person who actually used it because you can have an image for the app. Below is an overview and reputation of the person who used SKOUT.
