Top Pcmac Reviews I love this game, but I have an idea to make it better, please read this On PlayStation 3 lover (pcmac user) Hello, I love your game is a lot of fun, but I can do it better in just a couple of ways to first make Slendrina: husband I'm alive and can help you escape because if you go for a third story. We'll see Slender's husband dead, but instead you could make them Y, and if you open it you could talk to him and tell him that you need escape help and he can probably help by attacking his grandparents or the same side effects as if you attacked him and Slendrina x would be great because his grandparents put him in a cage, and that's how he gets his revenge just what I say. Number two is in normal difficulty mode every day when you cut the wires for the main door Grandpa can repair them and you have to cut them again and number three Hints. This show that grandma lives with a grandfather like with a teddy bear or car keys it would be much cooler and more fun to play so as please read this comment I hope you do it for a very long time, I'm sorry, yes I have Lotta click on the time Who reads this comment thanks for this far and thanks especially the developer of the game thanks, I hope you read this comment I love this comment game I love your work I have been playing your games ever since Slendrina Slendrina came out I have a few Ok ideas so I love the new Grandma game it's so fun Grandpa is really scary tho lol. And I love that oy can now avoid throwing the door (like a normal grandmother) or boats (new) except the car. But I have an idea, Grandma Chapter 3 (I put a lot of thought into this, so I hope it counts). They have a granddaughter in this. And if you know the original grandma, if you get a teddy bear and put it in the crib, this weird little girl shows up. (Idk her name) and she may be a granddaughter (or something else, but I just want it to be a girl) and not a car or a boat. There could be a plane in the attic. So you can get this key and open the room and get all the supplies for it (like the boat and the car) and the granddaughter will also have a part (as Grandma hears everything she comes running) granddaughter she can't kill you because she's still a little girl, but she can call that call for her grandparents to come and get you. I hope it was good, I really hope you could make it so much fun and open a whole new chapter in the game! I hope at least the creators read this and answer what they think. I hope you enjoyed it! Great game that will definitely keep you on your toes I liked Grandma so when I found out that there was Chapter 2, I decided to download it. I really like how they switched settings now we are in Grandpa's house with new elements. With new items comes a new way to find them so definitely have to do a search around like the first game. A tip I would give to new players however to try the game out with just Grandpa first. It's easier for him to maneuver than his grandmother. Then if you can handle it just add grandma herself. Then, if you're really up to the call, try them both. I'm on easy both in the house and even I'm having a hard time bearing it, but that's not a bad thing. Just need to remember their routines to get the hang of it. Both of them have different tactics and procedures (Grandpa sleeps and checks security cameras, while Grandma does dishes and plays the piano here and there).. Overall, it's definitely a good game to play if you want to get some scares while trying out your avoiding skills. ITS AMAZING AND ONE OF THE BEST BEFORE EVER slothyininja678 (Pcmac user) Hello! I love my grandmother very much and I'm a big fan. I'm so happy that you continued grandma because I was worried when the other one had no updates. I think this one has very creative features like grandma playing the piano and washing dishes, grandpa sleeping and checking cameras, the squid thing, and how the new pictures tie into the storyline. I also like the way you added the boat. However, I have a few suggestions for adding Things. I want you to add back grandma's old pets like spider and crow. I would also like a few more Easter eggs. Also, I think adding slender and slenderinas baby baby be pretty cool. I also like more endings and playing over scenes. The last thing I hope for is the yard. I also want the car to be in the game, except in practice mode, because grandparents will use it. But other than that, I love it! I really like the new bathroom model and security room. Have a good day!!!!!!!!!! Day!!!!!!!!!!
