Andrea Hirata is an Indonesian writer. His debut novel Rainbow Troops (known as Laskar Pelangi in Indonesia) broke national sales records, made him the best-selling author in Indonesia to date, reached more than 5 million readers and made a significant contribution to the development of modern Indonesian literature. Rainbow Troops, located on the island of Belitung, Indonesia, tells the story of a close-knit group of students and their teachers fighting for education and dignity, even when they face constant difficulties. Stunningly rich in natural resources, Belitung is also home to chronic poverty and discrimination in education. This amazing story tells the story of a persistent young teacher and her tireless efforts to fight for the right of ten students to education. Together they take the reader on a journey through the beauty of childhood friendship, the inspiration of love, and the power of education. The magnetic personality of the students and the unspotted determination are sure to inspire. This inspirational novel is the first book in the Rainbow Troops quartet. Dreamer, Edensor and Maryama Karpov are the other three books in the series. Rainbow troops have been adapted for the big screen. He found success not only in Indonesia, but all over the world, it has received awards and recognition including: Berlin International Film Festival (screen in Panorama), 2009 - Golden Butterfly Award, 23rd International Children's Film Festival for Young Adults, Iran, 2009 - 3rd Place Audience Award, 11th Udine Far East International Film Festival, 2009 - SIGNIS Award, Hong Kong International Film Festival, 2009, 2009 , Best Film , Indonesian Film Festival, 2009, Nominated for Best Film, Asian Film Awards, 2009 - Best Film, CINEPAN, 20th Children's Film Festival Cologne, Germany Mizan, Bentan, Roman, Inspiration, Indonesia I want to rise to the top of the problem, hit granite boulders of difficulty, tempt Mara danger, and solve mysteries with science. I wanted to breathe some experience and immerse myself in a maze of life's twists and turns that could not be guessed. I crave life with opportunities that react to each other like a collision of uranium molecules: eruption unexpectedly, absorbing, binding, doubling, development, unravelling, and splitting in amazing directions. I want to go to distant places, get to know different languages and strangers. I want to travel, find my way, reading the stars. I want to wade through the desert and desert, I want to blister sunburn, get hit by the wind, and shrink cold. I want an exciting life full of conquests. I want to live! Want to try the essence of living starch! This novel once again confirms the existence of the tetralogy of Laskar Pelangi as an excellent work that should be liked by readers.
