Fire emblem cosplay tutorial

Our site is being changed to the new version. Everything you see is currently in read-only mode. Also, the layout and UI will not be complete until all sections have been reactivated, so please ignore any layout (or bland-ness) issues at this time. #1 gamerpanda 15 years ago as well, as I haven't seen any cosplay topics from Fire Emblem, I thought I could get one. I'm thinking of cosplay as Florina from Fire Emblem 7 (the first for GBA) here's a photo here for those who aren't familiar [URL= /URL] This is actually my first cosplay I'm doing. I think I'm going to find a pegasus stuffed animal to look like my steed. ... I think the hardest part could be the wig... rsrcs any suggestions? I am also interested in anyone else who has made an FE character. ... Will anyone recognize me? wait patiently Keeping in mind that I just made a few fantasies...^_^: It shouldn't be too hard to find a purple wig... depending on your budget, Amphigory.com or eBay may have something similar to the one you are looking for... (when looking at Amphigory, unfortunately it seems that the Cleopatra and Heroine wigs, which look like the closest style, do not come in this shade of purple. You could get the Enchantment in Femme and cut it...) For the dress, you may be able to find a simple sewing pattern to use. For boots, you may be able to make some kind of long boot covers out of spandex... the shoulder armor can take a little creativity. You could use some kind of foam from knee pads or croats and paint and decorate them to look similar... also, [URL= Amethyst Angel/URL] has a good tutorial for making foam armor... Part of the fun of cosplay is experimenting, so you might want to try a few things, and then post if you have a specific question about something. ^_^ good luck! yes, Erica would be nice, but maybe a little too complicated for my first try... For those more experienced, it would be very cool. There are a lot of cool characters in the new FE game for Gamecube. Unfortunately, there aren't many pictures of them yet... Were there specific parts of the costume, besides the wig, that you had questions about/problems with? For the wig, you can also check cosplay.com the wig shop. Anyway, you'll probably need to dye the wig. Check the Wig forum for the wig dye threads and/or check out the sticky FAQ at the top. :) Tenebrae. What I think I'm going to have more trouble with is the boots. I know my best bet would be boot covers, but I don't have the first idea of how There are very few threads of Fire Emblem here. It's not a great series compared to other RPGs. You can find more works of art from Fire Emblem here: Thank you. Startup cover tutorials: [url] /url] There is one in Tutorials here: [url] /url] -Tenebrae. O.O That's wonderful! Hugs Tenebrae You made my day!! You and State_Alchemist're making me feel like I can actually make this fantasy! I like you! Are you going to be my best friend cosplay.com? Eek! My evil twin Tenbrae apparently rocks hardcore... But and tenebrae, huh? :) stick an E in Gamerpanda's .sig always happy to help! O Tenebrae. Sister!!!! Rsrcs, I'm planning a farina cosplay. :D But if you're looking for other fire badge cosplayers points to yourself I did Erk, working on finishing Matthew, and as I said I'll do Farina (not to mention the other 20 or so characters I want to do, but probably not, rsrcs). I also found some fe cosplayers in Otakon 05, so they're out there just have to find them. Fresh! I kind of figured no one really cosplayed this game from the answer (or lack there of). Glad to see the other someone will be a pegasus knight! Are you going to use guns and everything? I think I'll bring a pegasus stuffed animal since Florina is more of a lover than a fighter! ^_^ ... It's a shame you don't live for me! [QUOTE=gamerpanda] Fresh! I kind of figured no one really cosplayed this game from the answer (or lack there of). [/citation] Consider yourself a group of special cosplayers. :) Fire Emblem doesn't get nearly as much marketing money as Final Fantasy, so many RPGs go unnoticed by cosplayers. Fire Emblem has as many cosplaying fans as Breath of Fire, Star Ocean or Wild Arms. As long as you don't need people to recognize you immediately in cons, you're going to be fine. Oh yes, there's probably going to be a spear with me. I grew up preferring to have gun props with my fantasies. It just makes me feel better than even if someone cosplays the same character, they usually don't have the gun either. Fire Emblem cosplayers may not be recognized immediately or frequently. But I think it makes you feel better when someone recognizes you. I used Matthew on Anime USA last weekend and that's what happened when the first person to recognize said something: person: dismiss me? Are you cosplaying Matthew's emblem of fire? DO YOU KNOW WHO I AM??? SOMEONE RECOGNIZED ME!!!! GLOMP person: XD can I take a picture? me: YAY YAY YAY, of course photo yay, someone knew who I was! GLOMP That was pretty much it, I did it with the other two people who recognized me too, rsrcs. That was funny. ^^ Blazer and Dorothea Standard Skirt - Fire Emblem Three Houses♡♡♡This sewing pattern is based on the Student Uniform blazer and Dorothea skirt from Fire Emblem Three Houses.Este Snapshot comes complete with the following PDF sewing files in UK size 8-18:- Blazer stitching stitching Standard sewing skirts - Applique designs large pdf format and svg- Printing instructions and size - Construction guide and tutorials - includes complete list of supplies and recommended materials/productsPlease see product photos for full size graphic.
