As you would expect from a big company like Sky, they have a great betting app. Design-wise, it looks very similar to other Sky apps such as news and sports (they are free to download as well and definitely worth using for the latest sports news). To find its way around the app, Sky Bet uses a simple navigation system, made up of several menus. On the left side of the app is the main menu. This is where you head to get a full list of sports, bet and watch information (live streaming on your mobile phone), customer support and quick access to My Betting - This unique feature where you can check the position of all your bets in one click.
