Families will be informed as soon as possible of the inclement weather so that they can be prepared. If there are widespread power/internet outages that affect teachers and students, we will not have a day of remote learning. Instead, we will close the school for the day and will be formed at the end of the school year (excluding GHS Seniors). Personal extracurricular activities will be cancelled if road conditions do not improve sufficiently to maintain the activity. Vice Governor Susan Bysiewicz recently visited the District's Early Learning Center in Eastbury to learn about our successful new program. Our state has lost tens of thousands of childcare places since the beginning of the coronavirus pandemic. The centre provides teachers at Glastonbury Public Schools and members of the Glastonbury community with affordable and quality childcare in a safe and engaging centre. The center is self-supporting at no cost to taxpayers.
