In game IGI 1, you may have cleared the mission of getting back nuclear weapons from your rivals, but this time it's quite different. In IGI 2, as a first-person game, you have to get back some of the sensitive data present in chips with the Russian mafia. The most interesting part of the game are the missions given to you that must be completed on your own. There will be no support from government SWAT officials to get back the confidential chips. The graphics in the game will be very handy for you because it gives you a clear picture and make you feel like a 3D game. And that's what most game lovers will be looking for. Don't you? You may think it's just a mission you have to complete to win the game, but that's not a fact. You have to clear 19 missions to get rid of the chip from your enemy. During the war, you will experience some tough conditions that you may never have encountered before. Meanwhile, you get a chance to choose some weapons, but you have to be alert to capture them at any point in the game. The IGI 2 game has a lot of advanced weapons and explosives compared to the IGI 1 game and even the COD series, which is loved by many. So, overall, these 19 missions are almost complete if you don't have the right plan to overcome the most difficult wars.
