MUST (Part 2) For although we go in the flesh, we are not a war for flesh: (For the weapons of our war are not carnal, but mighty through God to pulling down strong holds:) Discarding the imagination, and all the high that magnify yourself against the knowledge of God, and captive every thought to the obedience of Christ. 2 Corinthians 10: 3-5 Conscious Mind mainly receives information from two sources, namely internal and external sources. The inner source of information is the unconscious mind, while external sources are five physical feelings (Read the first part of this study). The unconscious mind hosts record past things that have happened to us, whether good or bad, positive or negative. The conscious mind is unable to hold information for a long time. This is where thinking, analysis and perception take place. What you see, watch, feel, taste, feel, feel and hear affects your thinking. The devil also uses them to inject suffering or obsessive thoughts into your mind. Sometimes, you want to stop what you think about, but you can't stop thinking about it. It's actually the nature of obsessive thoughts the devil brings into your mind. For example, the devil introduces sexual thoughts and images into your mind; You start thinking about it and can't stop thinking about it even if you want to quit smoking. At this point your Human Will has been weakened; your resistance level to such thoughts is reduced. Your thought has been captured by invisible and powerful beings. It's torture to be in this state of mind. In this situation, you can not overcome these thoughts by thinking positive thoughts. Your mind is under attack by the mind of the obligatory spirit. The solution to this problem is to speak firmly and verbally with the evil spirit behind the thought. For example, if your mind is obsessed with thoughts of rape or suicide, you should calmly, in a firm tone, command the evil spirit for the thought to get out of your mind using the name of Jesus Christ. Here's what to say: You are an evil spirit that makes me think of rape, I bring you in the name of Jesus Christ, get out of my mind. Talk about it repeatedly, and you'll find that within a short time the obsession will disappear. This is one of the first steps to a victorious life against unwanted thoughts, demonic oppression and victory in the battle of reason. Demonic possession, obsession and oppression cannot be recognized by some professionals as a means by which a person can be tempted to act evil. There is no denying the fact that an evil spirit can influence a person to do evil. There are cases throughout the Bible where evil spirits control, manipulate and influence men and women to do evil. (Photo by David Harrison of Pexels) Battle in the mind. Our minds are running think in a negative direction. We can feel as if they are stuck and locked negatively, and we can't get our breakthrough. What prevents us from moving forward when we try so hard? The spirits that bind the mind can prevent your breakthrough, even if you make an effort. It goes beyond emotional ailment and pattern of behavior of wrong thinking to the demonic spirit attacks your mind. The silak behind your fortress, which prevents your deliverance, is the spirit that binds the mind. The spirits that bind the mind lock you up and prevent you from moving in a positive or forward direction. They paralyze spirits that attack your thinking and physical movement. They keep you in a place of defeat instead of moving forward to the victory that Christ intended for you. People do not receive complete freedom because the spirits that bind the mind are not discussed. When we don't talk about everything that haunts us, we don't get the freedom we need. We cannot deepen and destroy the principalities behind evil forces if we cannot define the principality. I discuss mind-blowing spirits and other fortresses more in my book, Distinguishing and Destroying the Works of Satan. Mind-mandatory spirits attack our minds, but not only in a place of fear, stress, anxiety, depression and mental illness. These spirits are powerful and keep people in a place of unworthiness, defeat and sacrifice mentality. They keep you angry, passive and stagnant in your spiritual walk. The spirits that bind the mind keep you in a place of rejection, frustration, and fear. Lies are behind mind-blowing spirits having you think the worst. They are couples with vain fantasies and false scenarios. Thoughts that haunt your mind tell you things that contradict the Word of God, leading you to believe the worst will happen. Have you ever been disappointed that you or the person you love failed to get their breakthrough? Perhaps they are taking two steps forward and one step back. It seems that the same cycle of the fortress continues to manifest itself. We must define the spirit that binds the mind behind this fortress. It is not enough to come after and evict fear, denial or anger. The spirit that binds the mind associated with this fortress must be identified and eradicated. The Lord has recently shown me how many people can get stuck in years of slavery because of the gravity of the mind-tying spirits and how they attack. Something seemed to be tying his mind, so we reproached the mind of tying the spirits away from him: It may take time to get complete deliverance. The reason is that we are adjusting from a selfish life to becoming servants such as Jesus Christ. It takes time to cut out all the parts of us that are not from God. Watch this video on how to get a full release. If you are having trouble letting go of things around the world, watch this video. 1 John 2:15-17 King James Version (KJV) 15 Love is not peace, nor what in the world. If any man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world, the manhood of the flesh, the taste of the eye, and the pride of life, not from the Father, but from the world. 17 And the world passes, and the man who he is: but he is that doeth the will of God abideth forever. MOP MOP MOP MOP MOP MOP Dear Heavenly Father, We thank you that we are scary and wonderfully done in your image. The mind, and will be, and the heart, and emotions - such a complex matrix. We know that you are not the author of the delusion, and I ask you to sit in the presence of _____ right now. _____ mind is unclear and confused. We ask in the name of Jesus that you bind these spirits that bind the mind. We banish this spirit of fear, doubt, confusion, torment, trauma and reverse trade, un-forgiveness, bitterness and justification you are subjected to, and we associate you with the spirit of Balak, Molek, Lilith, Abdennon Belial and Beelzebub right now in the name of Jesus. He/she wants his/her mind to be free, and he also desires it in his heart. In the name of Jesus, I break the crust that was built on the gentle beating heart of Kew. The lies, the pain, the pain in his/her life that led him/her heart to also make his/her heart harden from anything that can help _____ as well. In the name of Jesus, Lord, discover the pain that has caused this firmness of the heart; allow z. to be healed by the light of your glory. Cover all the emotions that will pop up as Kew becomes real with you. Show _____ areas where he/she didn't give forgave completely. Hold her hand as she chooses to forgive those who don't deserve it. You will be The Excuse of Kew, and she will keep you safe; knowing that you will take care of his/her everything you need. God, please cover this house with your own protection. Give your eyes to see in the hearts of those around her. Give him the wisdom to see for the friendship that he/she forged and give him/her strength to fight for the life you died for Kew to have. This life of evil, torment and death does not live. Give Kew's heart hope and vision to move beyond this current struggle. Send friends who love and support him/her to be healthy and whole. Give supernatural love to your word, and compulsion to read it and heal from it every day. When depression comes down on him/her-remind Sue that you are right there in the Word. _____ can reach out and touch you through prayer as well. In the name of Jesus, I beg for blood over the whole family and the Kew family. Keep each one safe and bring each one to you. Amen. Author: Julia Shalom Jordan Jordan
