Screen Construction Simulator 2 with 3D panoramic visualization, we will arrive in the city under development, and our task is to manage various construction machines to perform the construction task. The game city is still under development, so the degree of prosperity is clearly different from the big cities, a system for players to provide basic and real construction techniques the same, a huge body and various functions are perfect, it is inevitable to drive There is a sense of tiger prestige. Building Simulator 2 doesn't join too many sites, players will have their own efforts to make the company better and better. For the average person, it can be difficult to reach out to the large machinery used for construction. In the game, players will test 36 vehicles and machines used in construction, these machines from well-known manufacturers such as CAT, Liebherr, Palfinger, this authorized original vehicle, the reduction is very high. With these vehicles, players will have more than 60 different types of construction work ranging from changing pipes to repairing roads and so on that Players experience a brick moving experience. Continuing to do do Work, players can get their own construction company growing and get huge returns. Just enter the game, players must establish their own character name, image and company name, then the player can enter the beginner's tutorial, the player will start with the movement of the vehicle, and after performing a number of tasks, the player will be able to familiarize himself with the game game and operations. Basically getting started is still very easy. Dragging the bottom left corner of the joystick, you can control the direction of the vehicle, and in the bottom right corner of the screen were refueling and reversal keys, but because of these large vehicles, so operation and car when there is still a completely different feeling. When a player clicks on a vehicle or car, a roulette option pops up. The player directly ends up dragging his finger to a related option, such as turning on the vehicle mode, turning the lights on or off, etc., can be shorted so that when the vehicle enters an engineering state, the player will be able to use a dual joystick to control the vehicle. There will be appropriate badges in different directions to remind the player that they may feel a little puzzled when starting work, but after passing after a period of acquaintance, the player can still qualify for surgery. In addition, in the game, the player can click the card icon to view the current card. The player can set the destination on the map or skip the driving stage to reach their destination directly. However, in the game less fun.-apkAwArd.Com Construction Simulator 2 is a relatively special kind of construction manual tour, we will create our own engineering team, and then take on various urban tasks, personally to complete the use and construction of engineering equipment, for ordinary people, these experiments are difficult to have opportunities, if you are interested, hurry to try it. Construction Simulator 2 is a small player in manufacturing operations, and a slow-growing company, thanks to their ongoing efforts as a construction company. Go watch all the games. Construction Simulator 2 Screen with 3D panoramic visualization, we will come to the city in development, and our job is to complete various equipment for drive construction. The sports city is still different in the sense of big cities, making the basic and current construction system for development distinctly different from heavy facilities and challenges at the same time, so the level of prosperity it doesn't necessarily drive for a tiger reputation. Construction Simulator 2 Many sites did not involve players trying to make their business better and better. For the average person, it can be difficult to reach the machines used for large buildings. In the game, players can experience 36 cars used in construction, machines are known manufacturers of original vehicles that they are eligible, such as cat, Liebherr, Palfinger, the reduction is also high. These vehicles have repaired the routes of the players and so on, the player can have 60 different types of game tasks, so you can experience the movement of the pipes by changing the experience. Keep your players working for their own production company to get on the rise and make a huge return. Simply put, players decide to have their own character image, name and company name, the player can give the beginner a tutorial, the car will be able to control the movement, as well as meet in a series of tasks, players will be able to learn the behavior and behavior in the game. Found. In fact, it's very easy to start. In the bottom left corner of the joystick because these large vehicles can pull the car back and fuel it in the bottom right corner of the screen and the rear buttons are driven, but the way that the car works, there are still very different views. If the player needs to drive or hit it, the gambling option pops up. When the car is full of modern technology, players will be able to draw the appropriate options with their finger and turn the lights on or off, etc. Don't be surprised if players in different directions have the same character that they will be able to feel in a small startup, but at the time of introduction, players can still be used to work effectively. Also in this game, the player can click on the card card to turn on the display. Players can leave their destination on the map without setting their destination or driving directly to their destination. The Less, the game is less fun.- ApkMix.Com Construction Simulator 2 2 is a relatively accurate type of attack hand, so we will build our own engineering team with experience and then use general public and technical equipment, for individual urban diversity construction, to complete the use of construction if you are interested.
