FedEx Field is a first-class location located in Landover, Md. As many fans will witness, The FedEx Field is known to be one of the best places to catch live entertainment across the city. FedEx Field is known for hosting the Washington Redskins, but other events have taken place here. FedEx Field Seating Maps SeatGeek is known for its best-in-class interactive maps that make finding the perfect place simple. Our previews of View from Seat allow fans to see what their view of FedEx Field will look like before buying, allowing guesswork from ticket purchases. To help make the buying decision even easier, we display the Deal Score ticket on each card row to rate the best deals. FedEx Field Guide SeatGeek asked thousands of NFL fans to weigh in on their football stadium experiences, rating atmosphere, stadium meals, and bathrooms. FedEx Field has been recognized as the #32 for atmosphere, #32 for food, and #30 for bathrooms. Redskins fans can view the full FedEx Field Stadium Guide or check out how other NFL stadiums are measured on our NFL Stadium Guide page. The home team seats at FedEx Field Sitting next to the Bench Of Washington Redskins is a great chance to stand next to the players and can be a big part of the lively sports experience. Interactive SeatGeek maps indicate the location of the home and visitors benches, and note which sections are closest to each bench. FedExField's seating is spread across five floors: Lower Level, Club Level, Lower and Upper Levels of The Suite, and Upper Level. Three of these levels: Lower, Club, and Upper Levels are named after significant figures from the Redskins, NFL, and Washington, D.C. area. The lower level is officially named George Preston Marshall Lower Level, a club called Joe Gibbs Club Level, and the top level is called Pete Rozelle Upper Level. VIP Suites The Suite Levels have 243 suites, a lounge and luxury Owner's Club boxes and 15,044 club seats. Five series of Dream Seats have been created since Daniel Snyder bought the Redskins. They are located in front of the previous first row of the lower level, reaching almost to the level of the field! The seating is clearly and intuitively laid out, but if you have any trouble finding designated places, please seek help from an employee who will only be happy to help you. Reserve a seat and get tickets today! For ticket information and more information about our preferred ticket provider, please review the FedEx Field ticket information page. For all upcoming events and purchase tickets to the desired show, please visit the FedEx Field Event Schedule page. Alcohol is sold only to guests aged 21 and over. Proper identification is needed There are two (2) drink maximum per purchase, per person. At the Lower and Upper levels, all alcohol sales will stop completion of the third quarter of the Redskins game. Sales may be discontinued earlier at the discretion of management and for other events. A ticket to the Bud Light Party is required to enter the Bud Light Party and entry/re-entry is not allowed. Click here for more information. Located in section 113, Redskins and Anheuser Busch have created a one-of-a-kind interactive social lounge complete with virtual kick field goal, two morphing stations, and tablet experiences. Take Bud Light and play one of the many Xbox Ones, download your experience, and be sure to drink responsibly. However, cameras, digital cameras and handheld video cameras are allowed at sporting events, as long as they do not interfere with the gaming fan experience. Guests may not play any images for any commercial use without Redskins' written permission. For concerts, please refer to the concert page, for specific event restrictions. The Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation is a nonprofit foundation of the team and was founded by Redskins owner Daniel M. Snyder in the spring of 2000. The Foundation's mission is to be a voice that raises awareness of issues affecting young people in the region and to leverage the unique assets of the Washington Redskins and its corporate and community partners to achieve measurable outcomes that improve communities. The Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation is a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization. For more information, visit our Charity Fund section. The Washington Redskins cheerleaders provide in-game entertainment at all Redskins games. They are also available for performances at special events. Please call 301-276-6775 for more information or visit the Redskins Cheerleaders website. To ensure a safer environment for the public and significantly speed up fan entry to stadiums, NFL teams have implemented an NFL policy that limits size and type that can be delivered to stadiums. The NFL's Stadium Safety Committee unanimously recommended the recommended this will improve public safety and make it easier for fans to access all stadiums. The NFL urged fans not to bring any bags, but outlined what is permissible. For more information on Clear Bag policy, please click here. Starting with preseason games, fans will be able to carry the following style and size of a bag, packaging or container on the stadium square, stadium gates, or when approaching a queue of lines of fans waiting to enter the stadium: Bags that are crisp plastic, vinyl or PVC and do not exceed 12 x 6 x 12 . (The official logo of the NFL team is clear plastic tote bags will be available through the Redskins Team Store) Small clutch bags are permissible if they are approximately 4.5 x 6.5, with or without a handle or belt can be taken to a stadium with one of the clear plastic bags. One gallon clear plastic freezer bag (slopok bag or similar). An exception will be made for the necessary medical items after a proper inspection of the gates intended for this purpose. Prohibited items include, but are not limited to: purses are larger than a clutch bag, coolers, briefcases, backpacks, fanny packs, cinch bags, unapproved seat cushions, luggage of any kind, computer bags and camera bags or any bag larger than the allowable size.
