And He is elevated in Might, Wise. (Surat al-Ahr 59:24) Hadith on the names of Allah. Narrated by Abu Hurair: Prophet Muhammad SAW said: Allah has ninety-nine names, i.e. one hundred minus one, and one who knows them will go to heaven. (Sahyh al-Bukhari - Book 50 Hadith 894) Abu Huraira informed the Prophet Muhammad SAW as saying: Indeed, there are ninety-nine names for Allah, i.e. one hundred, except for one. Whoever lists them would go to Paradise. And Hammam made this addition to the power of Abu Huraira, who reported it from the Prophet Muhammad SAW that he said: He is the odd (one) and loves the odd number. (Sahich Muslim - Book 35 Hadith 6476). 1. As Muslims, we believe in Allah according to His beautiful names and attributes. Allah repeatedly reveals his names in the Holy Koran, first of all, so that we understand who he is. Learning and remembering The names of Allah will help us determine the right way to believe in Him. There is nothing more sacred and blessed than understanding the names of Allah and their lives. How do we expect worship, love, fear, and trust to our Lord, Almighty Allah, if we do not know who he is? Allah says in the Koran: And Allah has the best names, so refer to Him by them. Allah is no deity but Him. He has the best names. (Koran 20:8) He is Allah, Creator, Inventor, Fashionista; he has the best names. (Koran 59:24) The Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said, Allah has ninety-nine names, i.e. one hundred minus one, and the one who knows them will go to Paradise. (Sahich Bukhari 50:894) Abu Huraira informed the Messenger of Allah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) that there are ninety-nine names of Allah; whoever devotes their memory would go to Paradise. Indeed, Allah is strange (He is one and it is a strange number) and He loves the odd number .
