Who established the SOY program to recognize one sailor representing the best of the Navy, demonstrating both professional and personal dedication? On what date each year should all SOY teams be completed and ready to submit to their force commander in order to allow sufficient time for the subsequent level of competition? In what year was the SOY program expanded to recognize one outstanding sailor to represent many superiors of pretty officers serving in the coastal agencies of the fleet throughout? What award will the respective echelons receive for all selected SOY below the power level of competition? In what year was SOY expanded to include the Naval Reservist of the Year (inactive)? What dates will the SOY competition cycle go through? October 1st - September 30 How many years of sustained superior performance will each SOY selection board review in order to remain in line with the chief petty officer selection board process as the final candidates will be nominated for chief petty officer? Do each SOY coordinator transfer the competition dates to the Office of the Chief Petty Officer of the Navy (MCPON) no later than what date each year? What levels of the SOY contest and above will be awarded to the Navy and Marine Corps Medal of Gratitude for all participants? What form of SOY-graduation sheet will be used at all levels of competition? Where are THE SOYs selected to advance to Chief Petty Officer to be appointed as students at the earliest opportunity after their promotion? Who is typical in the history of sustained superior performance, team impact, mission contribution, proven leadership, dedication to self-improvement, outstanding professionalism, and superior appearance? I was selected for Blue Jacket/Junior Sailor/Sailor/Senior Sailor quarter/year! Now what? First of all, congratulations! Take a look at the classification sheet. If you notice the vast majority of points come from the package itself - it means that the responsibility for you is to win heavily on your chain team to get your pack square away and just a little bit to be on you and how well you perform. You are responsible for 60 items..... 180 comes from your package. So take a deep breath and relax. Make sure your shape is squared away. Make sure it's stencil. Put your ID in your pocket just like a boot camp. Dig out your dog tags if you still have them. Wear the right socks. Don't wear someone else's uniform for crying out loud! Expect one or two questions on the following current events topics (and what does this mean for you/your team) Elements from your day command responsibilities plan (who is OMBUDSMAN? The DAPA? Etc.) On this day in the history of the Navy command trivia Base Trivia (Who was the ship/ base galley named after? The question of opinion (What would you change if you were ANPON during the day? what is the one uniform regulation requirement you would change? etc) be able to read The Sailor's Creed, your chain of command before the president, and the 11 General Order of the Hour all as you are in Navy Recruiting Commercial. Seriously, say, a sailor's creed as you bleed blue and gold! Say it loud! And proud! SAY IT LOUDER! When you are called to the room, act as if you are back in the boot camp: march and make face movements. Come to the center of the room (board members may have an X tape or chair for you to stop in front of) and read CHIEF (or senior board member) SEAMAN TIMMY REPORTING FOR BLUE JACKET OF THE QUARTER BOARD AS DIRECTED!, and then when given the team (READY, TO) tell the board members, WARNING TO SAILOR CREED! Wait a few seconds until they get up and come to attention. Then, belt that credo with such a feeling that you're going to make them drop HOOYAH! When you're done. At this point, the Acting Director-General will conduct a single inspection. Wait for Master-At-Arms to tell you (UNCOVER, TO), and then give you permission to sit down.... and then sit. Sit down, though. I know, I know, it's not a real thing -- but just. Don't fidgets. Don't sprawl in your chair as you play video games. Sit with your feet flat on the deck, back straight, cover on your knees, and fold your arms on your knees. When you are asked a question, make eye contact with that board member. Sandwich your answers with their name. Chief, navy's birthday on October 13, 1775, chief! When the board is over, they may ask you if you have anything you would like to tell them. Wait until the board fires you - and leave just as you came, with all that military bearing and before the movements.
