Of course, you'll level up your character too. It also has fantastic graphics. This is one of the best FPS games for players who love history and campaign more than competitive matchmaking. SniperPrice Hitman: $4.99 with In-App PurchasesHitman: Sniper is one of the most unique FPS games. The character is perched outside a building, looking with a sniper rifle. Your job is to get out of the various goals without anyone being suspicious of your position. Le Le it contains over 150 missions, various sniper rifles to unlock, leaderboards and also has some strategy elements. It's relatively cheap and can be a lot of fun if you prefer a little more strategy than a raw, super fast action. Infinity OpsPrice: Free to playInfinity Ops is one of the newest FPS games on mobile devices at the time of this writing. It was launched under a different name and re-branded shortly after. It boasts competitive online multiplayer experience in a sci-fi environment. The game features above-average social features, clans, various in-game weapons, jet packs, and a variety of game modes. The graphics and mechanics are also quite good compared to most average FPS games. Most of the feedback from the game is surprisingly positive with the exception of those who come across bugs. Into the Dead 2Price: Free to playInto the Dead 2 is one of the new FPS games. It has many of the same mechanics as the first. Race through zombie fields to survive. The player receives a lot of weapons to unlock and upgrade. This variant also includes some strategy elements and dog companions. The graphics are above average. It also plays well to be a mobile game and contains multiple endings. The game has a surprising amount of depth to be a mobile game. It's a freemium game and it's never ideal. However, it is still an excellent FPS game. Modern Combat 5: eSportsPrice: Free to playModern Combat 5 is among the most popular and mainstream FPS games on mobile devices. The game comes with decent graphics, tons of content, online multiplayer, and more. Its popularity virtually ensures that there is always someone online to play with or against. It also comes with a campaign mode, six different character classes that you can level up and customize and support for hardware controllers. All this translates into a very solid experience. Nowadays, the game is even promoting as eSports.NOVA LegacyPrice: Free to playNOVA Legacy is the latest title in a franchise of popular FPS games. It's a sci-fi shooter with a full campaign mode, decent graphics, different game modes, online multiplayer modes, and more. You can also create and upgrade your weapons. Some of its tertiary features include leaderboards, character customizations, and multiplayer death cam replays. It's a freemium game. This makes him feel and play differently than his predecessors. However, it is among the best. Don't believe your request for 20 MB, though, it's much bigger than that. PUBG Mobile and PUBG Mobile LitePrice: Free to playPUBG Mobile is the mobile port of the hugely popular FPS game on consoles and PCs. game drops you on an island with 100 total players. The goal is to be the last one left standing. There's also equipment, weapons, and vehicles scattered across the map. Play surprisingly well as new as it is. In addition, the mechanics are media, even for a mobile FPS game. Fortnite is another excellent option in the same FPS subgenre as PUBG Mobile. There are also some decent PUBG Mobile clones. Shadowgun War GamesPrice: Free to playShadowgun War Games is the latest game from MADFINGER GAMES, developers of the popular Unkilled, Shadowgun and Dead Trigger franchises (also great first-person shooters). This plays a lot like titles like Overwatch. It's all PvP online with various characters with various abilities. It's brand new, so developers haven't added a lot of it yet, but others are coming in future updates. This had a somewhat rough release, so the Play Store rating is a bit low, but updates have fixed many of the issues. Other MADFINGER games could also easily make this list. If we've lost one of the best FPS games for Android, tell us about them in the comments! Hockey is the last of north America's four great sports, although it also has a good international following. However, it simply doesn't have the numbers that football or American football have. This means developers don't pay as much attention to hockey as other sports do. In other words, you have some options here, but let's just say they're not the most robust. However, there are some fun games to play. Here are the best hockey games for Android.Hockey All StarsHockey Nations 18Puppet HockeyPuzzle HockeyStickman HockeyPrice: Free to playBig Win Hockey is one of the most popular arcade hockey games for mobile devices. Play as a fairly typical arcade sports sim. Gather various players, put a team together and put that team against opponents. It's not an officially licensed title, so players aren't real, but there's still a lot to do. Some of the game features include various customizable to unlock, fast PvP game modes, and you can even play with or against friends. It's nothing like the last EA NHL game, but it's going to get you. Blocky HockeyPrice: Free / $2.99Blocky Hockey is a simple arcade hockey game. It uses the mechanics of runners. Skates along the lanes. You have to change lanes and move on to avoid opponents. It features loads of playable characters, combat, multiplayer, and retro-style graphics. There's not much else in the game but that. It's affordable, affordable, and fun to play. It's nice to kill the 20 minutes between times. ESPN and Yahoo fantasy hockeyPrice: FreeESPN Fantasy Sports is a decent fantasy sports platform. It supports most sports, including hockey. The app allows you to create or join leagues, draft your team, set up your roster, free agency browsers, conduct operations, and communicate with other league managers. That's everything he has to do. The app has the occasional technical problem. We recommend that you double-check to make sure your lists are set the right way. Otherwise, this is a decent, if occasionally slow, app for fantasy Hockey 2020Price: Free to playFranchise Hockey 2019 is a fantasy hockey simulator by CBS. This struck us as strange since NBC has the rights to hockey games in the United States, but anything else. The game allows you to build a team, simulate full seasons, coach your players, and more. It's mostly a collectible game. This means that there are freemium items and loot in the form of player packs. It's better than previous franchise games. However, its freemium mechanics are still quite aggressive. It's otherwise fun to play. Rage: HockeyPrice: $0.99 + $0.99Ice Rage: Hockey is a top-down arcade hockey game. You have a doorman and a skater. Bounce the puck until someone scores. It's a bit like an ice hockey version of air hockey. The game offers local multiplayer support for two players on the same device. We thought it was pretty unique. In addition, there is a tournament mode for a small variety. It's a simple arcade game in the middle. Also, it is not a freemium game and this is a rarity in the mobile game space. The game is a good killer of the time if nothing else. Hockey All StarsPrice: Free to playHockey All Stars is a decent general hockey game. Get a joystick and some buttons to actually control players on the ice. The game is smooth and fun, especially when you hit that cross ice a limer for a goal. However, it is a free game with free elements to play. Therefore, you can expect quite a bit of grinding to get better players. Otherwise, it is one of the best mobile hockey games. Hockey Nations 18Price: Free / Up to $4.99Hockey Nations 18 is a decent arcade hockey game. This is also from the developers of Hockey Classic 16 themselves. He has three-on-three six-nations hockey. This includes 40 North American teams, 27 Russian League teams, 19 international teams and two all-star teams. It has a limit of games per hour and you can buy more if you wish. Aside from that, it's free of the usual free game elements that plague mobile games. It's good enough for what it is and despite its name, it still gets updates starting in 2020.Puppet HockeyPrice: Free to playPuppet Ice Hockey is yet another arcade game with hockey elements. It's a 2D game with a game against one. Shoot the puck through the ice and the other player returns it. Whoever scores the most goals wins. There are power-ups, really fun animations, and more. However, at the end of the day, this is just Pong with a hockey theme. However, he is a good killer of the time, even if it is a freemium game. Puzzle HockeyPrice: Free to playPuzzle it's a two-game hockey match-three. You probably know how to play three games. Move symbols on a grid until you match three or more symbols. The resulting games help you score goals, make saves and win games. It is a licensed game so that there are real hockey players in this. However, at the end of the day, it's a threesome with hockey themes rather than a real hockey game. However, they will get you through the 20-minute interval. Stickman HockeyPrice: Free / $2.27Stickman Ice Hockey is one of the few hockey games with real hockey mechanics. Skate up and down the ice, score goals and do other hockey stuff. It has the top-down style of 90s hockey games. This should make older fans feel at home. The game also features four difficulty levels, 46 teams, various season modes, multiplayer PvP, and hardware controller support. This makes it probably the best real hockey game available on mobile devices. It's certainly not perfect, though, and it has its share of bugs.
