The First Minister Arcana (女教皇, Jōkyōkōu)?, also known as the High School, is a recurring Arcana in the Persona series. Overview [edit | edit source] Arcana is the means by which everything is revealed ... A silent voice in the heart whispers the deepest wisdom. Originally named pope, portrayed as an old woman with an open book, The First Lady of Arcana is a symbol of hidden knowledge or other untapped power, wisdom, feminine mystery and patience when she appears in tarot reading. Gameplay-wise, personas of Arcana's firsts are commonly associated with healing and promoting attributes. Mythological characters of Arcana's goddesses are usually crone archetypes, goddesses of wisdom, witches, female mages or themselves. Individuals associated with the Arcana first minister are usually quiet, reserved, hardworking and very intelligent. They are often modest and shy, and won't be open to the protagonist until much later in their social messages compared to other characters. A recurring theme with characters of the first minister is that they have a complex of inferiority due to growth under highly exiled family members, as in the cases of Fuuka Yamagishi, Yukiko Amagi and Makoto Nijima. Appearances [edit | edit source] List personas [edit | edit source] Megami Ibunroku Persona [edit | edit source] The protagonist can guarantee a merger accident resulting in a Female Arcana persona by that starts from a hard reset (as in, is no longer a mid-game and loading save or selecting Return to The Head) and performing White Fusion after taking exactly 847 steps in an area where no enemies will be attacking, such as Mikage Sun Mall. The First Minister of Arcana is represented by Maki Sonomura. After completing Social Link, Fuuka will give the protagonist her self-made headphones, linking the final form of The Handmnance arcana, Scathach, Teacher. The Archana First Minister is also Persona Arcana fuuka Yamagishi. FES /Portable [edit | edit source] The Arcana first minister remains relatively the same as Persona 3. However, an exclusive Persona, High Pixie, has been added to the repertoire of Priestess Arcana. Persona 4 [edit | edit source] I want to protect the family inn. After all, it's close to my heart... The First Minister arcana Social Link is represented by Yukiko Amagi, a classmate of the main character in Persona 4. Social Link is automatically created in the scene when the investigation team plans a stake-out on Kanji Tatsumi. In social link events, Yukiko declares his desire to leave Yasoinaba to the protagonist, but to do so, he must learn to live on his own at a time when graduates, which includes finding a career he can pursue and learn to cook. Unfortunately, she is a terrible cook, and many dishes the protagonist's taste-test are practically edible. Several protagonist responses related to cooking Yukiko are also based on the protagonist's courage status parameter; The higher his courage, the better the answers the protagonist has access to. Leveling The First Minister's Arcana to Lv. 3 allows Yukiko to learn her distinct follow-up move, Fan Assault, where Yukiko delivers a powerful attack on the active enemy, with 100% critical speed and dizziness condition. However, the protagonist must first knock down the target. Later, as the protagonist collaborates with Yukiko, Yukiko realizes that she actually cared about her inn family the most, and just felt attached to the belief that she had no choice. By the end of Social Link, Yukiko will definitely not leave Yasoinaba, but inherit the Inn and continue her family's legacy. After a change in her psyche and finally finding her resolution, Yukiko's persona, Konohana Sakuya, is moving to Amateras.
