Schools will inform pupils and parents of these dates. On this page you will find school calendars with school period dates for all public schools in Australia. Use the tool below to customize your calendar by selecting your state or region. To provide a complete annual overview, national and local holidays are also included in the school calendar. The educational departments of each state and territory set term dates for public schools in Australia. However, the exact termates may vary from school to country or area, as schools set the professional development days for teachers and some other pupil-free days separately. For this reason parents are advised to confirm term dates with their schools. In the Northern Territory there are two different types of public schools: urban schools and remote schools. The termates that appear in Northern Territory school calendars are the dates of urban schools.
