Kaufland's new brochure is published every Thursday and is valid until next Wednesday, allowing Action. Kaufland Hypermarket and Kaufland supermarket is a German chain store founded in 1930. Since then it has gradually spread to other European countries such as the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Poland, Croatia, Bulgaria and Romania. In the Czech Republic, the first Kaufland was opened in Clandno in 1998. Today there are more than 100 hypermarkets that we can find in the cities of Brno, Khomutov, Yablonets over Nisa, Carvina, Colon, Liberec. Kaufland boasts a large selection of food. Careful selection of fruit and vegetable suppliers is, of course, not just a meat race. There is also its own bakery, thanks to which there is always fresh pastries for you. In addition to the food in its range, you will also find a wide range of pharmacies and household goods and pets. Because of how big Kaufland is, it can afford lower prices than rival supermarkets such as Albert, Astur and rynto, BALA, Bill, CBA, Coop, Country Life, Enapo, Ace Market, Family Market. Kaufland stores are open daily from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., but some selected Kaufland stores start at 6 a.m. and end at 9 p.m. If you want to be sure when you can visit Kaufland in your city, check out the store's website www.kaufland.cz.Kaufland range Kaufland is governed by the motto Out of Love for the Czech Republic, which you can see every time you visit one of their stores. Perhaps on each shelf you will find at least one Czech product, which is especially true for the section with meat and delicacies, where you will find much more. In addition to the classic brands that you know from other stores, you will also find special products of private brands such as K-Classic Lactosefree or K-Take It Veggie, which Kaufland has created specifically for people on special diets. They are also covered by regular activities, so feel free to view the current Flyers Kaufland - Kaufland - Flyer (here). Kimbino - flyers from Kaufland can be found here first!
