Turn the spare area into a streamlined creative space with these smart ideas on May 19, 2014 Turn the spare area into a streamlined creative space with these smart ideas 1 of 5 Build a Dream Room Designate Inspiration Space Consider the following options for your real Pinterest board: Display souvenirs on a decorative cork board (see Slide 3 for how-to), reserve space on the wall to attach colorful swatches or install hooks for storage. Corraling these creative pieces makes the room feel less cluttered. Embrace the color for an upbeat decorating scheme that won't overwhelm, choose two extra shades such as soothing turquoise and purple here, and use them for your wall color, as well as accents like storage baskets and bins or even painted chair. First, categorize by function (paint tools, sewing accessories, paper crafts), and then further separate from other identifying functions such as color, texture, shape, pattern or size. Cover old, clean soup bags in wrapping paper to create pretty pencil holders. Look into open racks and clear stack boxes to keep materials in sight and available. And remember this rule: Stash's commonly used supplies are the closest to where you work, the less you use it, the higher on the shelves it can go.
