I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Continue

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Penn state library database

Penn State Alumni Association members have free access to the following content and licensed databases. The use of external search engines or robots to systematically copy or copy unreatably large amounts of data from these products is prohibited. For access, use your Penn State Alumni Association 10-digit member ID and last name as the password to log in to the site. Join the Alumni Association. Need help checking in? Adam Matthew publishes unique primary resource collections from archives around the world. The collections cover a wide range of topics in the humanities and social sciences. The themes mentioned are Field Studies, Cultural Studies, Empire and Globalism, Ethnic Studies, Gender and Sexuality, History, Literature, Politics, Theatre, War and Conflict. Search all of Penn State's collections through the AMexplorer search box or browse the list of links. The first contact with the civil rights movement of the twentieth century is a digital collection that provides ideas about American Indians and European/American relations. Primary source materials including manuscripts, artwork, photographs, interactive maps, printed materials and newspapers. The original documents were exchanged between the governors of the British colonies of North America and the Caribbean and the Colonial Office in England. Among the correspondence are di di di di di di di di dimes, maps, broad sides, laws, public warnings, newspaper clips and more covering all aspects of seventeenth- and eighteenth-century American history. Most documents are handwritten and the keyword is not searchable. Searchable by date, name, region, and topics; early settlement, Indians, Trade, Wars, Slavery and slave trade. Penn State has access to a reference source for its research into Module 1: Early Settlement, Expansion and Competition, and Module 2: The American government toward revolution, politics, history, public policy and current affairs. Academic Search Complete is a comprehensive scientific, multidisciplinary full-text database with more than 5,300 full-text periodic publications, including 4,400 peer-reviewed journals. In addition to full text, this database offers indexing and summaries for a total of 10,900 publications, including more than 9,300 journals and monographs, reports, conference papers, etc. Most PDF content and full-text titles dating back to 1865 are in local (searchable) PDF format in the database.   The database is provided by pennsylvania state university libraries and the PSU Alumni Association (50/50 divided funding). Harry Ransom Humanities Research Center, 17. About 60,000 images of original sources (mana mana and printed materials) documenting the history of exploration, cultural contact and colonialism. Topics include class and economic aspects of empire, religion, art and empire. These old limited British government documents provide unprecedented levels of detail on one of the most turbulent periods in Chinese history: all British Foreign Office files related to China, Hong Kong and Taiwan between 1919 and 1948. Original manoema materials with six large organizational collections from the American Jewish Historical Society in New York and twenty-four personal collections of articles documenting the Jewish experience in America. In addition to the mani writing collections, there are also rare printed books and brochures from the Soble and Rosenbach collections at the American Jewish Historical Society. JSTOR is a non-profit organization with a dual mission to create and maintain a reliable archive of important scientific journals and to gain as widespread access to them as possible. The content at JSTOR covers many disciplines, especially humanities and social sciences. Database provided by Pennsylvania State University Libraries. Mergent Archives is an online database with access to more than 180,000 collections of enterprise and industry-related documents, including Annual Reports. This collection is primarily useful for historical research and also includes the Mergent Patent Archives, a collection of 9.2 million patents going back to the mid-1800s. The database also includes the Country Report module: DnB Country Risk Profile, DnB Country Risk Line Report, and Mergent Country Profile. It also includes D&B Industry Norms and Key Business Rates that provides data on more than 100 million private companies. Basic Business Rates on the Web provide access to the industry's financial norms and rates. These industry criteria are compiled from Dun & Bradstreet's database of public and private companies. MergentOnline (formerly FISonline) is a subscription-based service that provides information on more than 15,000 U.S. government companies and 30,000 non-U.S. companies. public companies. MergentOnline is manufactured by Mergent, Inc., formerly known as Moody's. Mergent/Moody's has been a publisher of detailed job descriptions, company his hisdies and financial statements since 1900. This investment research database provides information about stocks, mutual funds and foreign exchange trading funds. Subscription stocks and mutual funds include access to Morningstar Analysts Reports. Focusing on important collections of original archival material (manoema, typewriter and ephemera) from major libraries in the UK and America, Adam Matthew provides the basic resources to allow students and academics to examine these issues thoroughly and firsthand: Changing Lifestyles, 1950-1975 Youth Culture, Student Protests, Mai '68, Popular Culture; TV; Music; Movies, Civil Rights; Women's Liberation; Minority Groups, Space Race, Consumerism; Credit Credit Computers, Vietnam War, Nuclear Disarmament. Search hundreds of scientific journals for full-text articles in humanities, arts and social sciences journals. More than 1,000 high-level business publications-keyword search or full-text articles in news, feature articles and in-depth analysis from newspapers, commercial publications, journals and scientific journals. The database is provided by pennsylvania state university libraries and the PSU Alumni Association (50/50 divided funding). Located at Fisk University from 1943 to 1970, the Department of Racial Relations and its annual Institute were established by the American Association of Missionaries to investigate problem areas in race relations and to educate communities and develop methods to prevent conflicts. Documenting three key decades in the fight for civil rights, this resource exhibits speeches, reports, surveys and analyses produced by Department staff and Institute participants, including Charles S. Johnson, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Thurgood Marshall. Sage Business Researcher is a collection of original in-depth reports on timely topics in business and management. Reports are published every two weeks. Provides full-text access to more than 730 Sage logs. It's a gateway to SAGE reference publications (encyclopedias and manuals) and EBooks penn state has purchased. It also contains a Collection of CQ Historical Documents. It is a research methods tool created to assist researchers, faculty and students in research projects. SAGE Research Methods connects SAGE's famous book, magazine and reference content to more than 100,000 pages with truly advanced search and discovery tools. Job Statistics provides access to historical, current and projected demographic and industry hands at the state, county, zip code and metropolitan statistical area level. Data is especially useful for business plan projects and market research assignments. Current and past news articles from four of the most respected national newspapers: The New York Times (including The Magazine and Book Review), The Washington Post, The Los Angeles Times and The Christian Science Monitor. The full text of all newspapers date back to the mid-1980s. Page 2 Read and watch Dean Dewey's message about reopening University Libraries for the fall 2020 Semester. The Online Resources Access Library offers a range of remote resources for our users. Our goal is to provide you with the resources, expertise and services you need to disrupt your business as little as possible. Changes to Operations a discounted program of public access to Pattee/Paterno Pattee/Paterno, access will be limited to the pattee/paterno and pattee ground floor will be open to the public. Visit Libraries and Departments for hours and availability at other library locations (campuses and University Park). and Help Librarians and staff on all campuses can be used for remote reference, consultation and assistance. Please contact us via The Librarian's Problem. Note: Libraries have created a poster creation guide and offer one-to-one consultations for students using Microsoft Reservations. This replaces the Effective Research Posters Design and Creation workshop, which was cancelled this spring and cancelled along with other undergraduate workshops. The renewal and return dates of the term loans have been extended until 18 January 2021. Deadlines for short-term DVDs, equipment and PALCI credits have been extended until September 2, 2020. Please check my Library Account for your updated deadlines. Please return Books and Interlibrary Credit materials to any Penn State University Library's book return. In University Park, the Pattee/Paterno Library book return is located at the eastern entrance to Curtin Road. Borrowers at other campus locations should use Ask a Librarian to see how they can return material from their relevant campus. Please note that all refunds will be quarantined for four days before they are removed from your account. Pavement pickup: Some of our collections are available with sidewalk pickup service. Media Technology and Support Services: Renting equipment through Media and Technology Support Services (MTSS) is only available by reservation and can be delivered to a customer every 15 minutes. Reservations need a period of 30 minutes. Equipment returns must be made by 7:45 .m. on the return date. To make a turn, just ring the bell at the front door and the staff will help you. If there is a line, use the side door per direction sign. Visit the MTSS webpage to plan your equipment reservation. by sending an email directly to MediaTechSupport@psu.edu requests or by calling 814-865-5400. Closed Stacks Piles of Pattee/Paterno, University Park libraries and campus libraries are closed for the fall semester 2020. Materials separated by I Want It in the catalogue will be undoned by staff, and pavement pickups are also an option. Access to stacks is limited to on-site circulation staff to get supplies for customers only. Students of a Seat Reserve will be able to book individual use for two hours per day per person in any of the group study rooms. They will be able to book their reservations seven days in advance. Collaboration Commons has 14 study rooms and 8 study rooms. All study rooms must be booked online via Reserve a Seat. During this time, we want students to work individually to maintain their social suspension practices. Please direct UL-study-rooms@lists.psu.edu questions. Desk attendants have been notified and will direct students to the link and otherwise provide assistance. The Group's The room adjacent to Starbucks (E128) has been re-intended and students cannot be booked at this time. Service Updates Service updates and changes are available from August 24, 2020: UBorrow and E-ZBorrow services are available. Search Bar Services are available online via Zoom. For information and time, visit the Search Bar Services page. Media Commons and Maker Commons: When the Pattee Paterno Library opens a multi-media expert information will be at the Commons Media/Maker Commons Service Desk. IT Services: Laboratory consultants are not available in Sidewater Commons or Knowledge Commons, but provide 24/7 assistance through Penn State Information Technology. Call 814-865-

HELP or email itservicedesk@psu.edu for help. Help via Zoom will be provided by appointment, Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. .m. -.m Saturday and Sunday, noon - 5:00 p.m. Printing Services: Public printers and print publishing stations have been replaced in Universtiy Park library locations with PAWPrints, a cloud-based, print management solution. Accounts have been created for all Penn State students, faculty and staff. Non-Penn State users can print directly from print stations. No account required. Immersive Experiences Center: Available only by research appointment (VR projects will not be assigned for fall 2020). Appointment requests and inquisies immersive@psu.edu be directed. Virtual Reality Lab: Closed for fall 2020. Entrances and Exits Central Pattee revolving door entrance/exit is closed. Customers can enter the building through the East Entrance on Curtin Road or through the West Entrance of the House of Commons of Cooperation. Please note that the pattee/paterno has a lift and stairs and access to stairs is limited to staff only. Our Contact Information Remote Resources page lists official links to University Libraries designated for our COVID-19 affected operations and services. University Resources Resources gold nugget military surplus , ansi flange bolt chart pdf , normal_5faf7c0cba958.pdf , analisis basico de circuitos en ingenieria david irwin pdf , 76618934466.pdf , new android phones verizon coming soon , amaravathi movie songs starmusiq , cid episodes in 3gp , 93893615494.pdf , blouse neck designs photos , normal_5fa06072efb14.pdf , massachusetts secretary of state corporations annual report , normal_5fb2fd4c0963f.pdf , minecraft skins girl devil ,