You are responsible for the download. When we first start studying IELTS, we need to build our basic knowledge of grammar and vocabulary to learn more skills. However, from these early platforms to higher levels, we must also expand our capital, improve grammar to achieve the right higher scores. If you are in a low group, you will find it difficult to study grammar, vocabulary at a higher level, but in a higher group, you need to expand it to raise your group. For those who want to update their vocabulary and also want to add other good grammar structures, a source of knowledge from the destination B1, B2, C1, C2 Grammar and Vocabulary with the answer will be very helpful to refer to. This is not a standalone IELTS document, but it is equally good! Let's find out about the book and download it at the end of the article! Introducing General Destinations B1, B2, C1, C2 Book was written by Malcolm Mann and Steve Taylor-Knowles NXB: Macmillan Books suitable for each level: Direction B1 - English A1 or A2, preparation for B1 (3.0 IELTS) Direction B2 - B1 English level or higher, preparation for B2 (4.0 IELTS) Destination C1 and C2 - B2 English level, Preparation for C1-2 (5.0 IELTS) Good book moment: Ensuring the amount of vocabulary and grammar is intertwined with the topic Of Basic advanced knowledge explained in detail, with exercises accompanied by full practice answers. Clearly presented, provide knowledge of the basics with deeper instructions on how to use each context differently. Then there are the types of words, anols, clauses... important in English. Each group is designed in accordance with theoretical lessons for exercise. Important ideas are emphasized, and there is a difference between British and British-American use. Underneath each theoretical section is the exercise section, keeping a close eye on each item above, making it easy for you to keep track of the amount of knowledge. Divided into topics divided into 5 main categories: vocabulary theme as opposed to vocabulary in tangled pairs, phrasal verbs - verb phrases, phrases and collocatives - phrases that often come together, patterns of words - word and word formation - forms of words. Accompanying exercises will help you practice and improve your knowledge. The lexicon system is highly used in European standardized tests, especially in writing - Speaking. The book offers both collocatives, phrasal verbs and idioms on the subject in a way that should expand the word capital for you. However, books have quite a bit of knowledge and theory is not an example, so you need to focus, pay attention to the tutorial to follow the knowledge. I don't think I don't think ... The larger content is significantly good, covering a lot of topics and grammar and exercises are quite complex. It's worth reading the book in my opinion. However, there are some not very big moments. For example, it was supposed to contain detailed explanations of the exercises, not just the keys to the answer. And I think it would be much better if there were tests for the whole book, not just for some sections. useful english language tutorials ... This review was hidden because it contains spoilers.
