All the way from A to I, see how many creative words your students can come up with! Our alphabet speech sheet is ideal for K - 3rd grade, but can be used in appropriate cases. The distinction between common and appropriate nouns can be misleading at first; therefore, starting with the basic differences between the two parts of speech will be helpful before progressing further in the study of the noun. Using noun sheets will help you understand your preliminary lessons on nouns. Know sheets sometimes focus only on common noun, with other sheets focusing only on proper nouns. However, for best practice research, try to find sheets that combine both parts of the family noun, including how to pluralize nouns as needed. Each of them has important differences and working on them together will help you identify the differences. Your Dictionary has created a sheet that includes both common and proper nouns for your convenience. It includes a basic definition as well as two sets of practical exercises. You can download the PDF document below by clicking on it. Common and proper noun Worksheets View and Download PDF All nouns either person, place or thing. However, common nouns are more common. They do not refer to any one, particular thing in particular, but rather they are used in a more general sense. Examples of common noun include: Dog, City, Car, Amusement Park, Sister, Holiday, Day and Toothpaste. The correct noun Definition Proper refers to more specific people, places and things. Instead of discussing a whole class of things such as day or toothpaste, they talk about something in particular. In addition, proper nouns are usually always capitalized. Examples of proper nouns include: Rover, New York, Dodge Caravan, Disney World, Julie, Christmas, Monday and Crest.
