James and The Cat Gun N/Kip James. As the second avatar of the professional wrestling stable D Generation X, the new age of criminals became highly popular in the late 1990s. At the same time, New Age Criminals was the third highest trade sale in WWF after rock cold Steve Austin and Rock. History World Wrestling Federation (1997) first tried the superstars Billy Guns and James like Rod Daweg, while the shotgun set up on a 1997 video of Saturday night criminals, then rock-a-ball and the real double J-Like James, between them On Monday night's raw post edition, Jesse James went into the ring after the loss by Rock-A-Billy and asked him to replace his manager with him. Rock A Cat replied that the man was saying to the head and Jacob he was in the gate by a guitar. Rock-a-ball self-re-saas saas sa ass cat gun n and Jesse James Richerastinad himself street dawg. The team immediately made an impact on the WWF tag team scene with open child attacks against other tag teams and, after running out of the subject, an entry-central idea, only walking on the ring with the street dog. The team was known for pulling the win out of nowhere through cheating and weapons use. Tag Team Champions and DX (1997-1998) Main article: D Generation Until The End 1997, he defeated the Army of Punishment for the WWF tag team title. Not only did the team win the title that night, but they also got their offensenicnames when they won the steal and then ran over a waiting car, after which raw investor Jim Ross left a snout to make them look. Stuck by the name and New Age criminals soon became one of the most hated teams in WWF. During their split with The Lud, the criminals joined D-Generation X (DX) in team attacks on an episode of Monday night's raw. In 1998, shortly before the royal, New Age criminals started a fight with Mick, first as his friend Love War, then the Man of the Bunny and finally the Cactus Jack. When it became clear that he needed help dealing with criminals, He brought in The Choice Charlie. This faction was highlighted by a man who locked the criminals in the dumpster, Jack and Chanas Charlie and sent it to the concrete floor on the door's pump. In The Crystal Mana XIV, The New Age Criminals lost the titles to Jack cactus jack and the one who was the dempster Charlie in a match. The next night, however, with the help of Triple H and XPP, the criminals joined the current title and officially DX. The criminals were to convert from The Avengers to Hales, and they were with many different tag teams during the course of 1998. His immense popularity had helped to ship the WWF Challenge World Championship for the ranking during Monday night's battles. He lost the tag title to Kane and The Man of the Match in the summer of 1998, only to regain the title from the team after Kane's suspension in a disabled match. The late 1998 Vince Karachi Corporation tried and failed to try criminals away from DX, which caused the corporation members Ken Shams Rock and Big Boss to lose the title. As the 1999 break up (1999) started, the criminals slowly began to move to the Road Dog-Cutter title with each other struggling to sleep singles, While The Cat Gun started to challenge for the Intercontinental Championship (during these challenges, The Road Dog won the IC title and won the gun title). As 1999 continued and the team was not officially high, the gun won the King of the Ring tournament and eventually changed the ad. During the fall of 1999, the criminals first as faces, but then heels when they reformed (and now solid living heels) joined DX. No way 2000 criminals saw the end of the last when The Cat gun-toting Dddl waransi got a serious arm injury during a match with the Warriors. After losing their cool out the DX and getting into a fight with all DX members. Rod Daweg was released from his WWF contract in early 2001, while Cat was released from his contract with the company ten years later in 2004. Yesterday's Non-Stop Action Boat 4Live Kru Road Daweg yesterday during the non-continuous action-in-the-jesse James debate September 18, 2002 under his birth name, B.G. James. In July 2003, he was formed with a stable form known as The Truth 3Live Kru (3LK). All three went on to become the fan favorite and eventually won the NWA World Tag Team Championship on two occasions. On February 2005, the Cat Gun N debate against all odds, tNA interference in the NWA World Heavyweight Championship between Jeff Jarret and challenging Kevin Nesch. The gun hit The Nish with a chair, but he managed to get out of the pin attempt after the jar. With him captured the NWA World Heavyweight Championship belt to attack The N.A.A., B.G. James ran over the ring and fought the boat away from him. B.G. James and the Gun, now renamed the new-age robber (later only for the robbery), came into dispute again on April 24, when Jared, The Robber and Monique Brown faced Diamond Dallas Page, Sean Waltman and B.G. James (who was replacing the injured Kevin Neesch) in a deadly lock-up match. Page, Waltman and Jacob were the winners, although James and the robbers were fighting each other during this match. Through October and November 2005, the robbers (now using the name IP James, due to threats from Punjab, the name of their trademark New Age criminals seemed similar) helped many of the faction during their 3LK with Team Canada. At every turn, Though he was clearly helping Kru, Kandoz, kip refused to trust. On The November 26 Episode of TNA Effects!, and although The Kanduz Nan had their doubts, the group named 3LK Unconventional Kip and 4Live Kru themselves. However, after that, the Xchange changed the group, eventually establishing its own group, Latin American (LAX). The killings also went out only after that, leaving only With Kip and B.G. James Gang (2006) January 14, 2006 Kip James and B.G. James, now calling themselves James Gang, said they had attacked The Father of the Bill Andre in the face of A. And his new group again in the face of the Bullet Bob Armstrong. His official ring reunion took place the next night on the final resolution, where he somehow defeated the Diamonds. His fight with LAX continues and includes several more exhibitions by Bullet Bob Armstrong, including an arm wrestling match between AM and 67-year-old Armstrong. In May 2006, James Gang started a faction with Team 3D which was the largest tag team of them. James Gang picked up a victory over Team 3D when kip used a pipe with brother. He met again in Salamamaursa, this time with Team 3D. With teams standing at 1-1 (and brother returning to ring action), Team 3D challenged James Gang to find himself a partner and his face (including the brother-in-one) in a 6-man tag match at Victory Road. While the team expects them to get 3D From his family (such as The Bullet Bob Armstrong), James made a deal with the Gang Devil and instead has the Team with them to play James Mitchell. James Gang and The Atha got a table and pin after the criticism of the Black Hole after the 6-man tag match of no disqualification in the pit. 2 November Edition of the Voodoo Kin Mafia (2006-2008) Effect! Kim, Kip and B.G. James Kit shot a work-promo announcement they were leaving the company out of despair. During Promo B.G., it was claimed that the TNA had incorrectly managed him during his walk, and as soon as the microphone was tried to speak, it was cut off. An innunkars try to use the microphone and scream directly into the crowd met with another microphone cutting and then going on the show's exciting commercial. After november 11 shows in Connecticut (where World Boat Entertainment (Punjab) was based) were canceled, TNA has exhibited a novel at Punjab headquarters in which James Gang discussed the show's cancellation, posted on his website two days later. This novel was followed with a Promo 16 Effect!, during which he announced that he was given creative control, and voodoo kin were changing their name to the mafia (for short of VKM, Vincent Kennedy's Karachi initially a game) and the War on Punjab During the war he called out the restored D-Generation X (DX), calling it a failure and that the original race was saved by his location as the new age in the criminals in 1998. During his matches and promos on TNA television he constantly includes References to DX including his signature tans and exercise use. Soon a series of vents started broadcasting on effect! In and around Stanford, Connecticut, with B.G. and Kip, Paul Leviskey, Michael Hakkanbutum, and Vince Karachi called. During the vents he said he was trying to get a finished and bazaar letter sign and get Punjab to stop using the dX name. The vents were notable for running down the DX to the same thing while using the same style of humor as the original DX. When you finished the December iPad and issued an open challenge, the TNA website immediately posted the message from accepting VKM, even though it was already accepted by MNM. On December 1, VKM appeared at a house show at the Knoxville Sook Center with Vince Ross, Punjab, and a camera crew. They interviewed out fans, filmed themselves shopping tickets and finally entered the building, watching the main event match-featuring DX from an upper-level set. In December, he demonstrated a dX of dx, then, in response to Jim Ross' comment on his website, Vince Karachi probably won't respond to the war, and in response to receiving legal warnings from Punjab, he issued a million dollar challenge to Vince Karachi. DX, offering DX members and putting $1,000,000 for a major battle between themselves. Hermi-Yov Promotion later offered to host a million dollar challenge at a YUV show during the end of punjab's Hermajdon Pay-Per-View (scheduled for December 17) that referred to the event that was near Richard, Virginia, the site of Hermajdon. After ignoring the challenge, they are gathered to make it to the January 4th effect! After his Hakkanbotum, he challenged to meet them in his hometown. Punjab refused to acknowledge its presence and declared itself the winner in the fight during a promo on the final resolution, while Punjab won both TNA and VKM on January 8. In the same promo, he entered an angle with the chair, who declared that women deserve respect in the boat and got themselves together with a very heavy difference and got mocked by IP James, while B.G. tried to agree with him. To close the VKM, the bad chair brought in the hartbreakers (Antonio Thomas and Romeo Rosselli) in The TNA as the opposing opponents in The Floor X, but VKM worked short of them. Around that time, Lance Howit taint started hanging around with VKM, keeping the chair out of VKM matches. In April, in lock-up, Serotonian had already encountered VKM on the show, but then got out again. In 2007, VKM made me the new team known as the Bahem brothers in world boat entertainment before Damajaja and Bahim, although not enough, nor as Damajaja, before, to make a disabled match. VKM finally defeated Damajaja after the Salamamaursas Arki Kip Start Bahim, but Lance Howat turned on VKM after the match. After the week, per view on Victory Road Pay, VKM debate a new wall/sathe, so-called Voodoo Queen Rua Lavia. He attacked me after the VKM match, February 21, 2008, Kip turned on his teammate with a bestower in a tag title match against A.J. Shelis and Tomko, thus finishing the team. TNA creative writer Vince Ross said the Voodoo Kin mafia was cut short in terms of the shading Triple H, which got injured at the time. World Boat Entertainment back to Punjab (2012-present) on July 23, 2012, new age criminals returned to an episode of Raw to reunite with Sean Waltman, Sean Michaels and Triple H to recreate D-Generation X for a night. December 17, Billy Gun and Rod Daweg presented the Grammy Awards to Jerry for his return this year. The team, which starts on December 28, is in front of a team of scholars at a house in Rhodes.
