(1774) is a sonata for piano in three movements: Allegro Ante in C major Presto This sonata is part of an early sonata group that Mozart published in the mid 1770s. The first movement of the Sonata-Allegro movement, which is brief, with economics materials. The development section is only 18 measures long. The shorter length and moderate technical requirements make it an ideal product for early development and performance. Typical performance takes twelve to eighteen minutes (Richter) minutes. The work was recorded during Mozart's visit to Munich to produce his La finta giardiniera from late 1774 until the beginning of the following March.
