Halloween party takes place in many countries. Especially in the Anglo-Saxons! On Halloween night, kids and young people dress and walk the streets in search of treats. They knock on doors and say magic words. Trick or treat! If the house doesn't give them candy, the kids will spend a little mischief on them, on the contrary, if they accept the deal, everything will remain the same. In this category you can color online drawings of ghosts, monsters, zombies, vampires and more drawings. They're terrifying! Halloween night is just around the corner and most parents are already ars arranging some plans to celebrate it as a family. Like traditional there are likely to be costumes, lots of sweets and decorations in harmony with mystery and terror, however, the choice of plans is much more difficult. Sometimes we can't afford to leave the house to enjoy the various attractions in the city, although that doesn't mean that kids can't have a very fun night out. A very economical, simple, fun solution available to any parent is to draw with children. They will be very entertained and can spend another family night. In addition, it will be very useful for the little ones, as numerous studies have shown that drawing stimulates fine engine control, improves hand-motor coordination and writing skills. It is also an excellent exercise to increase concentration, channel negative emotions, stimulate creativity and emotional expression. And if that's not right, the drawing has a relaxing effect on the central nervous system, which helps children feel calmer and happier. The best thing is that the drawings of the children will be able to place them later in their room or even be part of the dark Halloween decoration. To make boredom not feel at home, we offer a few different and very funny ideas to draw with children in Hallowin. Five fun ideas to draw with kids on Halloween 1. Use Fun, Color and Mystery prints don't always have to be at odds. And sponge is all that the child will need to change the appearance of this vampire, ghost, sorcerer or zombie in front of him. It will be a lot of fun to soak up the sponge in different colors and then stamp it on the picture and give a multicolored tone to these characters. 2. Change texture is a very funny idea that sure kids will love to give you different from his characters. In addition, it is very easy to do because they will only need to put pastes of different shapes, lentils, rice or oily salt on top of the printed pattern and cover them with glue. Once they are dry, they should paint them with a sponge or brush, and appear that character is about life on paper. 3. Shadow with waxEs Kids love to use wax to give a deeper look at the drawings. In addition, they will be able to use wax candles that will be scattered throughout the house and, best of all, they will have a different and very peculiar pattern when they are finished. This method is ideal for filling ghostly drawings or providing a hazy effect. 4. Paint with straw is a technique that requires a lot of patience, but the result is worth it. This is a very simple effect to achieve, because it is enough to dilute the paint in water and use a straw to absorb the paint and paint with it the interior of the drawing, very carefully, so that the paint does not transfer the paper. Characters embodied in the picture will be left with a very original vintage effect, which children will undoubtedly love. 5. Spray in the picture Use an old toothbrush will serve to draw a picture and achieve a different effect. You only need to soak the brush a little in the paint and then pass the finger to the cells directly on the inside of the picture. It will achieve a very original atypical and abstract effect, ideal for coloring the backgrounds or clothes of the character. 10 drawings for print and colors with kids on Halloween to make your job easier, here are 10 different and really scary drawings that kids will be excited to color on Halloween night.
