Page 2 25 comments 16/6/19 As Techrum reported in previous articles, Mobile Alliance Game is about to launch a brand new version of Battlefield 3.0 with quite a big update in terms of graphics, more advanced, more beautiful. Shortly after the news was published, Garena also opened a trial of Battlefield 3.0 for The Mobile Alliance on iOS and Android platforms. The test version on Android can be downloaded quite easily, just go to the maychuthunghiem.lienquan.garena.vn and download the Apk file. However, for iOS devices, on the contrary, gamers using the iPhone, iPad will have to follow the steps below Techrum to be able to download and participate in the early experience of the test version of Battlefield 3.0 of the mobile alliance. How to download and take part in the Battlefield 3.0 Mobile Army Experience for iOS: B1: To participate in the test, gamers must download TestFlight here B2: Access the link below, choose start testing B3: The path will open a testFlight app with the Battlefield 3.0 test of the mobile army, gamers choose Settings Sorum Tech instructed gamers who use the iPhone device, iPad can download and participate in the early experience of the version of the 3.0 mobile army. This test version will last for the next 79 days, perhaps it's also the time when Garena will officially launch the battlefield version 3.0 for all Vietnamese gamers. According to TestFlight, iOS downloadable devices from or above, using iOS 7 or later, download capacity 1.58GB. According to Techrum experience, the graphics of the mobile version of the Battlefield 3.0 Army have been upgraded compared to the previous version, the blue looks more real, the water moves smoothly, the shadows, the effects of the skills are beautifully expressed. Battlefield Version 3.0 Mobile Alliance is also pretty well optimized for iPhone devices, namely Techrum tested on the iPhone 6s series - a device that is almost 4 years old, but can still Max Setting up a version of Battlefield 3.0 of this mobile alliance. The strange thing is that the experience in the battlefield version of 3.0 Mobile Alliance is very smooth on the iPhone 6s (59-60fps), although the graphics have improved significantly. It seems that Tencent was more optimal than the mobile coalition, so that older smartphones can play smoothly, but still have a large graphic background. Some images of the new graphic background Mobile Army 3.0 Last edited by the moderator: 17/6/19 17/6/19 This beta version is full of adm stars 18/6/19 Seems to be registered mctn to play 18/6/19 No, it is not a downloadable beta version. .
